

CANAL BILL PASSED
BY THE SENATORSNICARAGUA SCHEME IS EN-
DORSED IN UPPER HOUSE

However the Friends of the Measure Are Not Confident That it Can Be Gotten Through the House—Warm Debate Over Hawaii in the Senate—Judge Rick's Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Nicaragua canal bill passed the senate last evening by a safe majority of ten, the vote standing 21 to 31.

The bill as it passed the senate was substantially the same as that reported from the committee, no hostile amendments, although there were scores of them offered, receiving a majority. The thirty-one affirmative votes were made up of twenty republicans and eleven democrats. The opposition composed fifteen democrats, three republicans and three populists.

Senator Palmer secured the adoption of an amendment giving the President of the United States power to remove from office at any time in his discretion any of the government directors. The bill will now go to the house, where it is almost certain to come to an untimely end.

The bill in brief directs the issue of $70,000,000 of Nicaragua canal bonds, bearing the guarantee of the United States. An additional $30,000,000 of bonds is to be issued without the United States guarantee. The total $100,000,000 thus issued is to be used in constructing the canal. The secretary of the treasury is to have general supervision of the project. A board of fifteen directors is to have immediate charge of the work. Of this board the President is to designate ten members, no more than two from any one state. The United States is to receive $70,000,000 of the canal company stock in return for guaranteeing the bonds and is to hold a mortgage lien on all the property of the canal company.

GOLD RESERVE $58,024,428.

Secretary Carlisle Authorizes the Sale of Gold Bars for Export.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The secretary of the treasury has authorized the sale of gold bars for export on the payment of a premium of one eighth of 1 per cent to cover the cost of manufacture and transportation, and again yesterday $1,000,000 was taken on these terms. There was also withdrawn $2,800,000 in coin and $800,000 additional was engaged for export today, making the total to noon $5,700,000. This leaves the gold coin on hand, above the amount of outstanding gold certificates, $10,000,000. The treasury officials, however, do not regard the amount of coin on hand received on deposit for gold certificates as sacred to their redemption, but will continue to pay out gold coin in demand for legal tenders. It is deemed amply sufficient that there is enough gold in either coin or bars to meet the demand on gold certificates. While the situation is regarded as a very trying one, there is no thought of anything so serious as to involve the credit of the government, which the secretary will fully maintain at all hazards.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 26.—Cripple Creek gold in the form of refinery bars is finding its way direct to London, Paris and Amsterdam.

The managers of the Lawrence reduction works, operating in the Cripple Creek district, received returns yesterday from a consignment so sold in New York city, and while the premium is less than 1 per cent, yet it amounts to something in these days of small margins and close calculations. The Lawrence works are but following the example of other refineries in the west in supplying the New York demand for gold bars for shipment, which the treasury officials have refused to supply. Of course the local branch mint loses business while this movement lasts.

EXCITED OVER HAWAII.

Warm Talk Touching the Sugar Trust and the New Government.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Aside from the vote on the Nicaragua bill, the main interest of the day in the senate yesterday attached to a caustic speech by Mr. Mills of Texas, upholding the administration policy in Hawaii and incidentally scoring the sugar trust. The senator denounced the present Hawaiian government as "an oligarchy masquerading as a republic." He read in detail the investments of Claus Spreckels and others in Hawaii. Mr. Mills laid down the proposition that the senate was going too far in directing the executive branch as to what use it should make of the navy or the army. He declared that if this doctrine was conceded then the executive branch was powerless. The President of the United States could be brought to the bar of the senate at any time to give his reasons or to direct his course.

Mr. Allen (pop., Neb.) also spoke. He urged that Minister Stevens' initial act was a flagrant violation of international law. The minister should have been promptly recalled. Mr. Allen said he did not believe in a strong foreign policy or in "bullying" procedure, but under existing circumstances it was the plain duty of this government to recognize these conditions and open negotiations toward annexation.

Mr. Vest introduced a resolution in-favoring the policy of President Cleveland toward Hawaii and reciting that the course of this government should be to withhold from entangling alliances. This and the resolution under discussion went over to a subsequent day.

Ricks Case Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The report on the Ricks case submitted to the house yesterday by Representative Harrison of Alabama was terse. The committee reported that "they have made diligent inquiry touching the same, have taken testimony through a subcommittee at Cleveland and in the city of Washington by the committee as a whole, which testimony embraced all the evidence tendered by both sides."

The committee then recites the resolution adopted by the judiciary committee, censuring the fee system, without making further comment.

Favors the Lake Signal Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The house merchant marine committee yesterday authorized Mr. White of Ohio to report his bill providing a code of signals for vessels and other craft navigating the great lakes. This is the measure advocated and approved by the lake shipping interests.

BUSINESS NOT BRISK.

Events of the Week Have Not Tended to Improvement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Events have not helped business this week. Industries have not found sufficient demand for their products to prevent further decline in prices, and this week the average for all commodities has again touched the lowest price ever known. The number of hands employed does not increase, and a strike has cut off for more than a week about half the business of Brooklyn, to some extent affecting trade here. At bottom business hesitates because the future is clouded and the consuming demand has not increased in January as was expected. Heavy sales of wool, 6,567,150 pounds, against 5,661,350 two years ago, are in part the result of growing confidence among manufacturers that they will be able to meet foreign competition, and in part because prices are not thought likely to go lower, so that some have purchased beyond their orders for goods. Carpet mills are conservative, some having sustained heavy losses last year. Receipts of foreign wool are large and holders pushing to sell."

"Wheat has sold at the lowest point ever known for the May option, and spot has declined 4 cents for the week, liquidations of the immense holdings of the Fair estate being absorbed. Receipts at present are smaller than a year ago, but since July 1 have been 119,000,000 bushels against 120,600,000 last year. Atlantic exports are only 847,756 bushels for the week and do not suffice to support the market. Corn has declined 3 1/2 cents, though receipts are shrinking. Liquidation in pork has brought a sharp decline. Cotton barely escaped the lowest point on record, with receipts from plantations nearly 454,000 bales larger than at the same date when the crop was over 9,000,000 bales and stocks of American here and abroad 300,000 bales larger than at the same date last year."

"Failures this week have been 363 in the United States, against 430 last year, and 59 in Canada, against 55 last year."

Farmers Will All Suffer Severely.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 26.—A severe blizzard which started in at midnight Thursday night still prevails all over the southwest, with no signs of abatement. From the territories reports of many cattle freezing to death have already been received and as the settlers there are none too well provided with shelter and food great distress and doubtless many fatalities will be recorded. The snow will prove immensely beneficial to wheat.

Gales on Channel Coasts.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Severe storms prevail over all the coasts of Great Britain, France and Holland. In Scotland the fall of snow has been particularly heavy. A fishing boat belonging to Dunbar with a crew of seven on board has been lost, and off Port Reath, Cornwall, a vessel with a crew of fourteen men has gone down.

Scarlet Fever Epidemic.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 26.—Scarlet fever is raging in Kansas City, Kan. Nineteen cases have been reported in the vicinity of the London Heights school. Two pupils were taken ill while attending that school and as a result it has been closed. The disease continues to spread and much alarm is felt.

Armenians Write to the Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 26.—The Turkish newspapers print a letter addressed to the sultan by the Armenian clergy and notabilities of Adrianople, thanking him for the benefits enjoyed by his Armenian subjects.

Caucasus Was Fruitless.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The republican senatorial caucus was in session from 10:30 until 12 yesterday and adjourned without taking any action on any subject.

Congressional Apportionment Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—Senator La Follette yesterday introduced a new congressional apportionment bill which, it is said, will take the place of Senator Cranor's bill.

BIG BOAT GOES DOWN
OFF SANDY HOOKTHE BARK BEATRICE FOUND-
ERS IN THE GALE.

The Crew Were Saved By Hard Work—Snow and Wind do Damage in the West and Southwest and Railroad Traffic is Greatly Delayed Thereby.

SANDY HOOK, Jan. 26.—The bark Beatrice went down in the gale and fog last night, and the crew was rescued after hard work.

JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 26.—Joliet experienced yesterday the worst blizzard known in years. Commencing with a slight snow at noon the wind increased until at 4 o'clock all business was suspended, it being impossible to see across the street. The snow has fallen to a depth of seven inches. The electric street cars stopped at 4 o'clock and passenger trains on all roads were from two to six hours late. The blizzard was general and severe all through the state, much delay and inconvenience being caused to traffic, the city of Chicago suffering especially. The storm abated about 6 in the evening.

SEVERE BLIZZARD IN KANSAS.

Winds with Snow Extend All Over the State—Much Suffering.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 26.—Four inches of snow covers this part of the state, and a fierce northern blast traveling thirty to forty miles an hour makes the storm the worst of this winter. The thermometer is down about zero. Trains are badly delayed on all the roads, and the roads are snowed up. On the Wichita & Western railroad travel is entirely suspended, and a train is snowed in near Pratt. The Frisco road has abandoned all trains between Neodesha and Burdett, and a train on the Missouri Pacific is tied up at Conway Springs. The Rock Island main line west of Herrington is in trouble. The blizzard extends all over Kansas, much suffering being reported in districts remote from railroads. Western Kansas settlers are in a particularly pitiable condition. Much snow has fallen and is drifting badly in a high north wind.

NEBRASKA'S DROUTH BROKEN.

Blizzard with Heavy Snows Sweeps Over the Entire State.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 26.—An old fashioned snow storm of generous proportions raged over the entire state of Nebraska yesterday, the first real snow storm of any consequence in a year. Coming as it does, at a time when the state is short sixteen inches of moisture since March 1, 1894, the storm brings joy to everybody. Trains generally are on time, although engines have much difficulty in making headway against the northeast wind. Supt. Calvert of the Burlington and Missouri said: "The storm at Lincoln and east is not quite as bad as it was, although it is drifting and snowing some. From Lincoln to Kearney it is worse, blowing and drifting quite hard. North of Aurora it is snowing hard and blowing. On the Western division it is snowing hard and drifting." At Denver it was reported cloudy and calm. In Omaha the fall has been two and one half inches.

Northern Indiana Under Snow.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—A severe storm of snow, rain and sleet raged over a large portion of Indiana since 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, resulting in heavy damage to street car traffic in the cities and working ruin to shade trees. West of Indianapolis the telegraph and telephone wires were down and all communication was cut off for hours. Dispatches from the north part of the state report a blizzard, but there are no indications here or south of anything so severe.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 26.—A driving snow storm from the east raged here last night. The street car service is practically paralyzed. Railway trains are late.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Jan. 26.—A terrible snow storm set in yesterday afternoon, delaying trains from one to four hours. The snow drifted so badly on the Grand Trunk that several trains had to be cut to get in through the drifts.

Many Trains Delayed in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 26.—Street car travel had to be abandoned here shortly after 11 o'clock last night on account of the blizzard, which began at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Advances from nearly all points in northern, central, western and southern Wisconsin show one of the severest blizzards which has struck this state in years in full operation. Four inches of snow fell in three hours, and at 10 o'clock there was six inches. It was 22 degrees above zero here at 8 o'clock, and other points also report it comparatively warm, but colder weather is promised.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 26.—The worst blizzard of the winter was felt yesterday. Snow fell all day, and the streets were badly drifted and street and railroad cars greatly delayed.

Child Killed by a Cyclone.

ABBEVILLE, Ala., Jan. 26.—A cyclone struck the western portion of this parish yesterday about 9 o'clock, doing considerable damage, blowing down trees, fences, and the Techean and Vermilion telephone wire. The house of Mr. Spien was blown to pieces, one of his children killed and another seriously injured.

STRIKERS TO FIGHT
TO THE BITTER ENDTHE BROOKLYN TROUBLE IS FAR FROM SETTLED.

They Met This Morning and Decided to Carry the Matter Through Thick and Thin—More Wires Cut Last Night—Mayor Thinks Trouble is Over.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 26.—More wires were cut last night, and the strikers met today and resolved to continue the strike, although Mayor Schieren insists the strike's back is broken. Master Workman Connolly claims whatever change there is in the situation is all in favor of the strikers. He says the company's men are deserting them by the wholesale. President Norton says he has filled every striker's place, and that none of the men on strike will ever be taken back so long as he has a say in the matter. It is, he says, no longer a question of getting men, but of getting cars. Thirty-five property owners residing on Hicks and Sackett streets sent a petition to the grand jury denouncing the killing of Thomas Kearney. The petition denounces Major Cochran as a "cold blooded murderer" and demands an investigation into the circumstances attending the shooting. Yesterday was comparatively a day of peace and quiet. The militia will be sent home at once.

EXPLOSION KILLED SEVEN MEN

Frightful Accident in a Brewery at Mendota, Ill., Yesterday

MENDOTA, Ill., Jan. 26.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a boiler exploded in C. Henning & Sons' brewery in this city with terrific force. Seven men killed and six seriously injured, with a fine building completely ruined, are the results of the accident, the worst in Mendota's history. Of the dead workmen six are residents of this city, the seventh being a resident of De Kalb.

List of the dead: BIERSEID, ADAM, foreman. DESHAZO, SAMUEL, laborer. GHEER, DAVID, engineer. KENNEDY, JOHN, De Kalb, Ill., well borer. PEARL, HENRY, laborer. SEIFERT, CHRIS, foreman. WELLS, DAVID, foreman.

List of the injured: FREEMAN, H., Chicago, well borer, cut about the head; not serious. LOVE, JAMES, Chicago, well borer, arm broken and cut about the head; will recover. MCLEOD, A., Chicago, well borer; face cut, not serious. PARKER, GEORGE, Chicago, well borer; cut about head, not serious. REED, CHARLES, Chicago, well borer; cut about head, not serious. VARMORE, HENRY, Mendota, Ill.; badly injured.

These were so seriously injured as to be in need of medical attention. Many others were slightly injured and immediately went to their homes with friends. The shock of the explosion shook Mendota like an earthquake. Owing to the severe gale no report was heard in the down town district, but the shaking of buildings and clattering of windows and doors aroused the storm bound citizens. Every available physician hurried to the scene. The entire main building was wrecked by the force of the explosion, and all that remained of the magnificent structure was the malt house on the northwest corner and the ice house on the south, both badly shaken. Men battered and bruised were met who were looking for help and shelter. The injured were taken to the office building of the company and into the bottling establishment adjoining, where their wounds were dressed.

The fire alarm had brought the fire company to the scene and immediately the work of rescuing the unfortunate men who were known to be covered by the pile of broken and twisted iron girders and tons of brick was commenced. The blizzard was raging its fiercest, and the air was so filled with flying snow that a man across the street could hardly be distinguished. Women without wraps or covering for their heads pushed their way through the crowd anxiously inquiring for missing fathers and brothers. The engineer and fireman were found at 6 o'clock, and the search is still going on in the ruins for the bodies of Seifert and Bierseid. Although no one else is reported missing, it is feared others are buried under the wreck, as the storm had driven several men to the shelter of the engine room during the afternoon who were not employees of the brewery.

The loss to C. Henning & Sons will be $100,000 on building and machinery. The brewery will be immediately rebuilt. No cause can be assigned for the accident. The engineer is known to have been careful and experienced, and the machinery in his care was of the best. The building was five stories high.

Snow in Iowa Over One Foot Deep.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 26.—The worst blizzard of the season came down on Iowa Thursday night and it has been raging ever since. The snow which has fallen is estimated at twelve inches on the level, but it has been drifting before a fearful wind which has heaped it to the depth of several feet in places. The street railways of Des Moines have practically given up. The railroads are badly blocked, but so far most of the trains have come through though delayed. The weather now is colder and the snow still drifting.

MRS. PEARL IS CRAZY.

Her Husband Was on the Wrecked Chicora.

BENTON HARBOR, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Pearl, the wife of the only passenger on the ill-fated Chicora, went insane this morning. No trace of the missing Chicora was found yesterday. It is not expected now that anything further from the missing vessel will be found in this vicinity. The ice began leaving this shore at 3 o'clock in the morning and nothing whatever was recovered yesterday from the missing boat. Thursday evening the door of the clerk's room of the Chicora was found five miles north of here by a farmer. In all that has been found yet there is not a fragment of the personal effects of any of the crew. In the face of all the evidence of loss so convincing it is believed the hull of the Chicora is still afloat, and if it is there may be some one alive on it yet.

A BAD BANK BROKEN

Examiner Has All But the Cashier and $3000.

MULLIGAN, Neb., Jan. 26.—The state bank of Mulligan is in the hands of the examiner and Cashier W. J. Zirhut is gone with $3,000.

PEACE NOW IN SIGHT

Chinese and Japanese Diplomats Are Getting Together.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 26.—The Chinese peace envoys started for Japan last night.

TENDER TWELVE MEN.

Defense in the Debs Trial Find Satisfactory Jurors.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Counsel for the defense in the conspiracy trial of E. V. Debs and his associates expressed themselves as satisfied with the twelve men in the jury box just before recess at 1 o'clock yesterday, and made a tender of the jury to the counsel for the government. The twelve men who most likely will determine the issue in the great labor trial are as follows:

Roger Brown, Rockford; Charles Laird, VanOrin; Edward Budd, Jr., Milbank, Kindall county; A. D. Albrow, Wayne county; William M. Clow, Wheatland; M. C. Conrad, Niles Center; James S. Cowan, Brocton; John Coe, Highland Park; Reuben Commons, 408 West Jackson street; John H. Dye, Walnut, Bureau county; John H. Dye, Milledgeville; Andrew Emery, Lamont. These men were turned over to the marshal with the usual direction not to discuss the trial among themselves or with anybody else. The government counsel still have to pass upon the personnel of the jury, but as they have but two peremptory challenges it can not be changed much. The defense had exhausted seven of its twelve peremptory dismissals.

UNDERTAKERS AT WAR.

Pauper Dead of a Kansas County Will Hereafter Be Interred Free.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 26.—Across the line in Kansas City, Kan., at the county poor farm, the pauper dead is playing an important part in a war now going on between the local undertakers there. Recently the Sawyer Undertaking company was awarded the sole contract of burying the county's poor, and as a result the other competitors have declared that rather than allow this they will do the work for nothing. Before the present differences the competing undertakers made each pauper's death the cause for a fight and often snatching the bodies from one another in their eagerness to get the $10 fee. To put a stop to such work, Coroner Stevens opened bids for taking care of the bodies, the lowest bidder to receive the contract. When the Sawyer company was given the contract the other firms set up a claim of fraud, asserting that this company's bid was not the lowest. Until the difficulties are amicably settled the dead pauper must naturally prove to be an important adjunct, much sought by many and a source of saving to the county.

FATHER'S AWFUL DEED.

Philadelphia Murders His 2-Year-Old Daughter and Himself.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 26.—William McGroth, aged 31 years, went into the cellar of his house yesterday and called his two children, Samuel, aged 6 years, and Lillian, 2 years old, who followed their father into the cellar. He sent the boy up-stairs and with a revolver shot the girl through the head, killing her instantly. McGroth then placed the weapon to his own head and sent a bullet through his brain. He was taken to a hospital, where he died at 12 o'clock.

Say There Was Bribery.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 26.—Friends of Senator Washburn, who was defeated for re-election by Gov. Knute Nelson, have started a report that the legislature may investigate alleged bootlegging in connection with the election. There is not thought to be any truth in the assertions. It is learned that Knute Nelson, having been elected United States senator, will resign the governorship Jan. 31, when Lieut. Gov. D. M. Clough will become governor.

BIG GLENWOOD SHOP
LAID LOW BY FIREBAD FIRE IN THE NORTHERN WISCONSIN CITY.

Barrel Factory of the Glenwood Manufacturing Company Destroyed This Morning Entailing a Loss of $15,000 and Throwing 150 Men Out of Employment.

GLENWOOD, Wis., January 26.—The big barrel factory of the Glenwood Manufacturing Co. burned this morning and the loss will be $15,000 partly covered by insurance. The origin of the blaze is unknown. One hundred and fifty men are thrown out of employment.

BOYNTON, Mich., Jan. 26.—The business portion of the town was wiped out by fire last night.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 26.—The Crescent cotton-seed oil mill burned last night, and the loss will be $75,000.

Heavy Loss by Fire in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 26.—The Crescent oil mill, situated two and a half miles from this city on the opposite side of the river, was destroyed by fire last night. It is estimated that fully 800 tons of seed was burned. The building and contents were valued at $475,000, partially insured.

Loss of $50,000 in Fenwick, Mich.

HOLLAND, Mich., Jan. 26.—A destructive fire broke out in Fenwick yesterday, wiping out the south side of the street. Loss $50,000, with little or no insurance.

Small Fire at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—The fertilizer plant of E. Rauh & Sons near this city was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $50,000; no insurance.

PRESBYTERIANS CELEBRATE.

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Organization of the Church.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, Jan. 26.—A three days' celebration, marking the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the First Presbyterian church of this city, began yesterday. The church is one of the oldest and best known Presbyterian churches in Ohio. There is only one member of the congregation now living who signed the original charter. Many prominent members of the Presbyterian clergy of this and other states are in the city to take part in the celebration, among the number being Rev. Dr. Marshall of Des Moines, Iowa; Rev. Frank Talmage of Pittsburgh; Rev. Mr. McGowan of Maryland and Rev. Mr. Milligan of Freeport, Pa.

Companies Still Fear Bandits.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 26.—In spite of the fact that Bill Cook and most of the other bandits of the southwest have been gathered in by the authorities, the Pacific and Wells-Fargo Express companies have not resumed the carrying of money packages into the Indian territory. They say Cherokee Bill and Jim French and a few other choice spirits are still at large, and they can easily get together a sufficient following to hold up all the trains that will be run through the territory for some time.

Blaze at Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 26.—Elcock & Sultzberger's brick and tile works were burned early yesterday. The engine house, dry house, storage and other buildings are a total loss. Many million brick are supposed to be ruined. The loss is heavy. Being just outside of the city limits the fire department could render no aid. It is rumored the fire was incendiary.

Cycle Makers Elect Officers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The directors of the national board of trade of cycle manufacturers held their annual meeting last night in Madison square garden. The officers elected are: President, A. G. Spalding; first vice-president, R. Philip Gormully; second vice-president, George Pope; treasurer, W. A. Redding; secretary, A. Kennedy Child.

Say They Robbed Their Corps.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 26.—The military authorities here have sent dispatches to Boston, St. John, Yarmouth, New York and other places, ordering the arrest of Sergt. Balham and Corporal Hotson of the royal engineers, who are supposed to have deserted after having taken a large sum of money belonging to the corps.

Ribot Tries to Form It.

PARIS, Jan. 26.—President Faure has summoned M. Ribot to form a cabinet and the latter has accepted the task. He is now consulting with his friends. The wife of M. Ribot was formerly Miss Minnie Burch of Chicago. Since the fall of M. Ribot's ministry under the late President Carnot he has occupied a rather obscure place in politics.

No Further Aid Required.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 26.—With the $50,000 available yesterday, which was appropriated by the legislature for the benefit of Nebraska drouth sufferers and the contributions and pledges of aid from other sources, no further aid is required to prevent suffering.

Chinese Peace Envoys Are En Route

YOKOHAMA, Jan. 26.—Official notice has been received here that the Chinese peace envoys are coming on the steamship Empress of China. They will proceed to Hiroshima by train from Kobe.

NO STORM CAN STOP THE SONS OF SCOTIA

FOUR HUNDRED PEOPLE BRAVED THE BLIZZARD.

Rev. E. H. Pence Discoursed on the Bard of Ayr, S. B. Smith and L. H. Becker Joined Forces on an Appropriate Address and there Were Songs and Dances.

ROUGHING to the blast people felt their way into the Armory last night. Felt? Yes, that's just the word. Seeing was out of the question.

It all went to show what the Burns habit is. Once let a man succumb. Let him spend just one 25th of January with his Scotch brethren. Forever after he is irreclaimable. Flood, pestilence and fire wouldn't keep him away.

Anything else but a Burns programme would have been abandoned last night. The idea of suspending never occurred to the Burns committee however, nor to the four hundred people who stamped up the Armory stairs. At 8 o'clock Johnny Smith was showing low close his orchestra could come to sounding like bag pipes, and a few moments later President Alex Galbraith was welcoming the guests in a brief but well-turned address. In opening he voiced the sorrow of the society over the affliction that had come to Vice President G. C. McLean. Another absentee who was referred to appreciatively was Dr. James Mills, whose letter of greeting was read. In dwelling upon the observances of the evening, President Galbraith said:

Honors to the Bard of Ayr.

"Why is it that all over the civilized world there are celebrations of this kind tonight? What was there in this Ayrshire plowman of the last century to so enthrall the people throughout the universe one hundred years after he is dead and buried? Not his genius alone—great as that undoubtedly was. Not alone his intense honesty, his love of truth and hatred of shams and hypocrisy; not alone his loving sympathetic nature, but a happy combination of those talents and virtues. His wonderful versatility as a lyric poet and song writer is unparalleled. He portrayed as none else could every varying mood of man's whole life—his joys and sorrows, his ambitions, his struggles and victories, fortunes and misfortunes, his times of war and times of peace. Whether it be the genuine religious feeling shown in the 'Cotter's Saturday

REV. E. H. PENCE.

Night, or those charming little lines addressed to 'Mary in Heaven'; the kindly sympathy to his fellow mortals exhibited in such poems as he addressed to the 'Wounded Hero' or the 'Wee Timorous Mouse', the sturdy independence of 'A Man's a Man for a' That' or the scorching satire and exposure of hypocrisy in 'Holy Willie's Prayer'; the hilarious fun and frolic of 'Tam O'Shanter' and 'The Jolly Beggars'; the matchless beauty of his innumerable love songs, the strange mixture of mirth and awfulness in 'Death and Dr. Hornbook' or the intense patriotism of that soul-stirring battle ode, 'Scots Wha' Hae.'—no matter how varied the subject, Burns' pen touched them with a new life like an electric current, and pictured them for all time coming in such a way as only a heaven-born genius could do.

His words make cowards brave, Hope to the bruised returns, The trait trembles lest his slave Should hear a son of Burns.

Tribute From the Honorary Members. Stanley B. Smith and L. H. Becker collaborated on a short address relating to "The Honorary Members." Mr. Smith furnished the paper and Mr. Becker the oratory. It was declared emphatically that to the honorary member Burns was even more of a distinct and individual personality than he could be to his countrymen, to whom the poet was a part of Scotland.

"The honorary member," continued the writer, "reads the poems with never-ceasing delight; he is moved by their humor and pathos; he is animated by their scourgings of deceit and hypocrisy; he is touched by their descriptions of peaceful firesides and by their pictures of unadorned nature; but he sees the author only through the mists of a hundred years. The glens through which the highland lasses glided and the banks and braes of Bonnie Doon have to him no intense and personal significance. It is the poetry alone which endears to him the name of Burns and the country in which Burns had a being.

It requires no profound analysis for the honorary member to discern the reasons for the universal love which is manifested for the great poet of Scotland, and which seems to intensify with the passing years. Carlyle says that the conspicuous and abiding attribute of Burns is his sincerity. In all his writings there is no trace of cant or duplicity. In them as in all his relations of life there was an entire absence of affectation; his sympathy was so expansive that even the devil was included in his compassion; he met adversity with courage; he looked upon toil as natural and honorable, and he conquered the sorrows of poverty with a persistent hopefulness. Unlike Sheridan, of whom it was said "that he never squandered his money in the discharge of pecuniary obligations," Burns always paid his debts, and while he was often hungry himself he did not leave behind him an army of hungry creditors. Besides these qualities he had the rare merits of never betraying a friend, two cardinal virtues which have been fearfully weakened in these latter days by the ambition for place and the struggle for wealth."

Address by Rev. E. H. Pence.

Rev. E. H. Pence made the principal address of the evening. In the light of later days he could not commend every phase of Burns' character, and had faith that the poet, if born in this day, would endorse the criticism. The rugged honesty, the independence and the splendid fervor of the Bard of Ayr were dwelt upon lovingly, and a warm tribute was paid to the qualities of the Scottish people that inspired such verses—born as they were with the travail of a volcano. Mr. Pence was enthusiastically received, and was frequently interrupted by applause.

Interspersed with the addresses were songs, whistling solos and Scotch dances. Helen S. McLean, of Rockford, sang "Afton Water," "Comin' Thro' the Rye," and "Our Ain Auld Hame," showing a richness and range of tone that won her warm commendation. Mrs. Florence Forbes, of Milwaukee, has been heard in Janesville frequently and each time with growing pleasure. Last night she sang, "Cam' Ye By Athol" and "Callin' Herrin," and found her welcome just as warm as of yore.

William A. McCormick showed how a man could hide his property and beat the income tax. Mr. McCormick had a planning mill in his throat, a bird store in his mouth, a Chicago river tug just a step or two east of his epiglottis and a poultry farm in his bronchial tubes. Nobody knew it when he first came on the platform, but when voices from barnyard, forest, lumber district and wharf began to be heard, the proof was absolute. He had to run his planing mill until, as he said later, his "throat was full of shavings" and his chickens "peeped" so naturally that a little girl in the audience wanted one to take home.

Edwin L. Barker of Chicago gave several clever impersonations. He was successful as Sol Russell in "A Poor Relation" and aroused laughter by his sketch of the old farmer and the typewriter.

William Garbutt sang "What's A' the Steer Kimmer?" with much spirit and for an encore gave "Robin Adair." Accompaniments for the songs of the evening were by Mrs. J. P. Sweeney. Maud Gordon, as light as a thistle-down and graceful as a sprite, danced the highland fling and later, when the floor had been cleared, the fisherman's horn pipe. Had the throng been given its will she would have danced until far into the night. She gave way at last, however, and three hundred others had pressed forward to take her place, forgot the storm, forgot all their cares until well on towards morning.

Wood!

Maple wood, Michigan maple wood, $3 per cord, a drop of $3 per cord in one year. Come and get a cord before it is all gone.

JANESVILLE COAL CO., J. H. Gateley, Mgr.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea for you to get a suit now, while the price is down to $7? February 7 it will be off; never will sell again for less than $15. Ziegler.

THE long-looked-for sleigh riding is at hand. Now is the time the bells will jingle. We have the largest line of sleighs and cutters in the city and will make prices so that they will be sure to go. Janesville Carriage Works.

WINSLOW ONE SIDED IN HIS DECISION

NON PARTISAN PLEA DOES NOT APPLY.

Friends of Judge Clementson Show that the Racine Jurists Has Lost No Opportunity to do Boss Wall's Behest Since Taking His Seat.

Judge Winslow is out as a non-partisan candidate to succeed himself as a judge of the Supreme court. Is he a non-partisan?

That he is a democrat, all know. The question, however, does not relate to his politics. It may be better put thus: Has he upon the bench, shown himself to be a non-partisan judge? Let indisputable facts give answer to the question.

In March '91, of the five judges of the supreme court, Cole, Lyon, Cassoday and Taylor were republicans and Orton was a democrat. On April 3rd 1891, Judge Taylor died, and Governor Peck on the 4th day of May following appointed Judge Winslow to succeed him. In January, 1892, the Hon. S. U. Pinney, a democrat who had been elected to succeed Judge Cole in April, 1891, took his seat upon the bench, so that in January, 1892, the court was composed of three democrats and two republicans. In April, 1892, by the courtesy of republicans, Judge Winslow was elected without opposition for the unexpired term of Judge Taylor, that is, until January, 1896.

History of the Gerry-mander.

In 1891, under the dictatorship of Boss Wall, the legislature with the approval of Governor Peck, passed the first infamous gerry-mander act, which violated the constitution of the state by taking parts of counties and patching them together to form assembly and senatorial districts, and by making the number of inhabitants of the different districts vary greatly, to subvert grossly partisan purposes. On March 22, 1892, the supreme court declared this apportionment act void. And, as the dates above given show, it was shortly after the announcement of this decision that Judge Winslow was elected without a contest. After this decision Gov. Peck called the legislature together in special session, to frame a new apportionment law. The legislature met in June, with Boss Wall in command, and passed the second gerry-mander act, which was approved by Gov. Peck on July 1, 1892. It respected county lines, but in its apportionments was infamously partisan.

Details of a Rotten Law.

It formed one assembly district with only 8,626 inhabitants, and formed a republican assembly district with 25,111 inhabitants. It made a democratic senatorial district with 30,732 inhabitants, and it shaped one republican senatorial district so as to include 65,952 inhabitants, and in the language of Judge Cassoday, there were "other irregularities, though less glaring, yet no less repugnant to the constitution running through the whole act."

Judge Orton, when the supreme court set aside the first gerry-mander act, in his opinion said: "This apportionment act violates and destroys one of the most sacred rights and privileges of the people of this state, guaranteed to them by the ordinance of 1787 and the constitution, and that is 'equal representation in the legislature.' This also is a matter of the highest public interest and concern, to give this court jurisdiction in this case. If the remedy for these great public wrongs cannot be found in this court, it exists nowhere."

Judges Denounced the Measure.

The second gerry-mander act was a great public wrong, in the particular set forth by Judge Orton, and the supreme court was asked to set aside this wrong. The act came before that court for consideration and determination at the August term, 1892, and on September 27 the court decided that it was void because it violated the provision of the constitution, which requires the legislature in forming assembly and senatorial districts to do so "according to the number of inhabitants." But the decision was not unanimous. It was the decision of four of the judges, two (Lyon and Cassoday) being republicans and two (Orton and Pinney) democrats. Judge Winslow dissented holding in the face of the constitution that this apportionment act ought to stand in spite of its flagrant unfairness. That Judge Winslow's dissent was due to party considerations seemed evident. That was not so long ago as to make it impertinent now to inquire: Is Judge Winslow a non-partisan judge?—Grant County Herald.

Removal Sale.

6 piece chamber sets.....$2.85
7 piece chamber sets.....3.25
10 piece chamber sets.....3.75
10 piece chamber sets.....3.00
12 piece chamber sets.....4.25
$5 hanging lamps.....6.50
$6 hanging lamps.....5.00
$4 hanging lamps.....3.00
This is exactly what these cost us, will sell at that until February 1, when we move.

A Good Thing Not Gone

New bulk olives per quart 15 cents.
Armour's Star bacon sliced and ready for use, in one pound boxes.
New cream horse radish, pure, no turnips or potatoes, per bottle 20 cents.
New pickled pigs' feet.
New Saratoga chips.

DUNN BROS.

GOSSIP FROM TOWNS NEAR BY.

Gymnasium For Milton College.

President Whitford, of Milton college, has made up his mind that the college must have a gymnasium, and says it will go up within a year if he has to build it himself. His plan is a large building to be used for a gymnasium and so constructed that it will be turned into a large audience room with a seating capacity of 1,500, when the occasion requires.

Milton Highway Laid Out.

The much discussed "Milton highway" has been at last decided upon and the supervisors have laid it out. It is a continuation of the one running through lands of G. E. Bright man, west and north along lands of S. S. Pierce to the lake. It is understood that the action of the supervisors will be satisfactory to all concerned.

Pressman Had Other Business.

Editor Coe, of the Whitewater Register prints this apology:

"If the paper isn't printed well this week please lay it to our press man, who has a new experience in his eight years of sojourn with us—he says there is a young Norwegian emigrant at his house who came yesterday afternoon by the short route."

Equalled The Flint Feat.

Dr. Flint recently played at Racine and a young man of that town has since equalled the stone breaking feat without the aid of hypnotic influence. While suspended between chairs a gravestone weighing 325 pounds was placed on his chest which he sustained with ease.

Farmers Use Printed Stationery.

Many farmers are having printed letter heads and envelopes. They can be furnished at but little if any greater cost than without the printing and are very much better in every respect.

Brewer Was Broken Too.

J. Brewer of Brodhead, was breaking a broncho and emerged from the rumple that followed with a strained shoulder and a broken shoulder blade. The broncho is still untamed.

Delavan Men Fell Out.

Ollie Shuey and Joe Parks of Delavan, indulged in a spirited conversation in which bad words, a milk can cover and a revolver were mixed. As a result, Parks had Shuey arrested.

Electric Line Project Failed.

The prospects for an electric railway to Delavan Lake from the town are not very encouraging as the Chicago parties have given up the project.

SUBJECTS FOR LOCAL PASTORS.

CHRIST CHURCH.—Celebration of the Holy Communion at 8:00 p. m.; Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; morning service and sermon, 10:30 a. m. Sermon topic: "The Church Mission." Young Men's bible class, 4:30 p. m. Subject of lecture: "The First Church Council." Friday evening prayer and address, 7:15 p. m. Saturday, purification of B. V. M. Morning prayer and Holy Communion 9:00 a. m.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.—Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Pease, the presiding elder of Janesville district, will address the Epworth League at 6 p. m., and will preach at 7 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a full attendance at both of these evening services, to hear this entertaining, practical and forcible speaker. Other services during the day as usual. Sunday school at noon.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—The day will be observed as christian education day. Morning worship at 10:30 with sermon on "Christian Education" by Prof. H. M. Whitney of Beloit college. Evening service at 7 also addressed by Prof. Whitney. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6 p. m. All are cordially invited.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Morning services at 10:30 o'clock. Memorial address, in memory of Lyman J. Barrows, M. D. Evening services at 7 o'clock. Subject, "The Typical Man of the World." This is the first in a series on the, "Parable of the Prodigal Son." A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

COURT STREET M. E. CHURCH.—Rev. S. Halsey, D. D., pastor. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "The Ministry of Comfort." Evening, "Working Women." Pews free. Special music. All cordially invited.

TRINITY CHURCH.—Third Sunday after Epiphany. Holy communion at 7:30 a. m. Matins and sermon at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 12 m. Young Men's bible class at 3 p. m. Evensong and sermon at 7 p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Preaching by the pastor, Morning subject, "The Call at Horeb." Evening subject, "The Feet On a Rock." Sunday school at 12. Endeavor societies at 4 and 6 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.—Services now held in room 4, Bennett block at 10:30 a. m. Sunday and at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday. All are cordially invited.

Sleighs Cheap.

I have several fine sleighs, cutters, robes and blankets on which I will make special low prices. All sleighs at half price.

O. C. ALWORTH, Old Transfer Co. stand Fainted Away.

Because some parties took us up on price offered on 15,000 cords of maple wood delivered in Janesville. So get there and get a cord before it is all gone. JANESVILLE COAL CO., J. H. Gateley, Mgr.

For the first time in the history of Janesville, all the new 1895 spring styles are shown by us in January. Bort, Bailey & Co.

KIMBALL'S TAX BILL TO BE WITHDRAWN

JANESVILLE ASSEMBLYMAN WANTS NO CONTEST.

His Bill on County Aylum Trustees Makes Members of the Board Eligible—Present Law Does Not Work Well—Short Session is Predicted.

Assemblyman Kimball's bill which was introduced yesterday is a alarmed at the abuses connected with the management of county insane asylums and provides that members of the county boards may be trustees of these asylums. At present county supervisors are not allowed to serve as trustees and a lack of harmony in the management of county affairs is apt to result.

"I have talked with the state board of control," said Mr. Kimball today, "and they think as I do that the present law is not working well."

Mr. Kimball's bill of last week raising the limit of city taxation to three per cent, will probably be withdrawn.

"Milwaukee is afraid of it because her valuation is so high," said Mr. Kimball, "I understand that the entire Milwaukee delegation will vote against it, and of course no attempt will be made to crowd it through against any such opposition. If the bill applied to cities of the third class only, there would be no objection. I shall withdraw the bill Tuesday, and may change its form."

The bill is being held by the committee until Tuesday, at Mr. Kimball's request.

Session Will Not Be Long.

The chances for a short session seem good, despite the fact that a very large number of bills have been introduced, for there are a number of legislators who will insist on as short a session as possible. Both of the senators that represent the Rock county districts have put themselves emphatically on record as favoring short sessions. Yesterday when it was proposed to adjourn until Tuesday afternoon as was done last week, Senator Weeks at once raised the same objection as last week, that such a long adjournment was not in accord with an endeavor to have a short business session and he moved to adjourn only until Monday evening. Senator Putnam seconded him in a pointed speech, and said that if they could not go home and get back for Monday evening they could stay in Madison. They were here to represent their constituents and not to consult their own convenience. Weeks' motion prevailed.

BRIEF LOCAL NOTES.

THERE is a pair of those cork sole shoes left at $2.50. Lloyd & Son.

ALL $3 shoes reduced to $2 at Lloyd's, 57 West Milwaukee street.

WANTED: Hands to strip tobacco. Inquire at shoe store. Lloyd & Son.

EARTHEN tea pots to steep in, makes tea sweet and pure, 15 cents at Wheelock's.

THE easiest way in the world to make $10 is to form words out of "Cuticream, P. & E. O. P. O."

BETTER get a pair of those gents cold feet shoes and say good bye to cold feet, they go cheap. Lloyd & Son.

It costs five cents to have a collar washed. We sell you a new four-ply linen one for ten cents. Frank Baack, 7 and 9 South River street.

A BIG drop in wood. The Michigan maple, $5 per cord. Leave your order before it is all gone. Janesville Coal Company; J. H. Gateley, Manager.

THE bottom has dropped out of the price on men's beaver boots and felt boots and shoes. Better call before the sizes are broken, as we will get no more this year. Lloyd & Son.

SEND in your first list of words as soon as possible, accompanied with a Cuticream label properly stamped, so as to get your name down for a prize of $10 in gold. Prentice & Evenson.

MAPLE wood $5 per cord. Leave your orders soon, as we have sold four hundred cords in Watertown and six hundred cords in Rockford. Janesville Coal Company; J. H. Gateley, Manager.

No lady need say she had to wait until the warm days to do her sewing this year, as we have all the spring styles here in every department, and are making prices just as low as you will find them in July or August. Bort Bailey & Co.

These long, cold stormy, winter evenings when you wish you had something to do, just take these words: "Cuticream, P. & E. and O. P. O." and make all the different words you can. You may get $10 in gold April 1. Prentice & Evenson.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Most Perfect Made.

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

For the first time in the history of Janesville, all the new 1895 spring styles are shown by us in January. Bort, Bailey & Co.

For the first time in the history of Janesville, all the new 1895 spring styles are shown by us in January. Bort, Bailey & Co.

IT'S A MILLSTONE

About a young man's neck to be a sufferer from nervous exhaustion, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from, unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance. Such habits result in loss of manly power, wreck the constitution and sometimes produce softening of the brain, epilepsy, paralysis, and even dread insanity.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Special Announcement.

John B. Stetson & Co.,

have selected us from among all competitors as their Special and Exclusive Selling Agents for Janesville of their famous.....

SOFT —AND— Stiff Hats

We shall hereafter be able to show all the new and leading styles of this finest make of hats.

We will have more to say in the near future about these goods but enough for the present will be an invitation for all nobby dresses to remember and call upon us after Feb. 15 for Stetson's goods. We will use you right and sell you the best hats at $3, 4, 5.

All goods fully guaranteed and only procurable at

J. L. FORD & SON.

"The up to date Furnishers." N. B.—Don't believe or be surprised at what our competitors may say in regard to this matter, but cause there was "some blood spilled" but it is all right now.

FOR SALE.

One of the finest and most beautiful tracts of land in the west, a 1240-acre farm in Macon county, Mo., three miles from the Wabash and ten from the Hannibal & St. Joe railroads; churches and schools close at hand, rich, black soil, equal to the best in Rock county. This farm lies in the Great Blue Grass region of Northeastern Missouri, 50 miles west of Quincy, Ill., a region unequalled as to climate, soil, grasses, water, timber, fruits and other countless natural advantages as a farming, stock and fruit raising country. Five sets of good buildings on the farm. Will sell part or all at $30 per acre.

WILSON LANE, Attorney-at-Law, JANESVILLE, WIS.

NOTICE

I. H. DAHLMAN'S

—NEW DEPARTURE—

Auction, Sale and Commission Stables.

205-206-207-208-210-212-224-226 East 24th Street Between Second and Third Aves. New York.

OPENING DAY MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 1895, 10 A. M.

Regular Sales to take place every Monday and Thursday following the grand opening of the New and Spacious Ring now being completed for the sale of horses by Auction.

I have made arrangements for regular consignments from the Best Horse-Producing States in America and I am ready to supply any number of horses of all descriptions, Coach horses, saddle horses, trotters, cobs, draft, cart and truck horses, express delivery, and railroad horses. In fact, horses suitable for any purpose.

48 hours' trial given; every horse must be as represented, or money refunded.

Each and every horse will be sold to the highest bidder.

I. H. DAHLMAN.

DR. W. H. KIRK,

Office 112 Wisconsin St. Milwaukee, Wis.

ALL DISEASES OF MEN.

Blood diseases in all its stages, thoroughly eradicated from the system without the use of mercury. Stricture and varicocele cured without cutting. Young and middle-aged men suffering from exhausted vitality, premature drains and the thousand ills consequent thereon, a permanent cure guaranteed.

Book and Treatise containing valuable information on above diseases, FREE (sealed), in plain envelope.

ELDER TWIGG'S PHILOSOPHY.

How they come? Oh, jest fair—
Fair to middlin'.
Chuck to eat and duds to wear—
Um-m, fair to middlin'.
I'm one them men who never get
Particularly overhot
When good or bad luck comes—and yet
I'm fair to middlin'.
I figger things run jest about
From fair to middlin'.
First and last, day in, day out,
Jest fair to middlin'.
You'll find a smile for every tear,
And vicer very, never fair.
The world keeps even—pretty near—
At fair to middlin'.
It's better when you're that a-way—
Say fair to middlin'.
And can keep happy, as I say,
At fair to middlin'.
I claim a man don't have to choose
Twixt paradise and the caboose.
You're jest as fat and lots more use
At fair to middlin'.
—William Allen White in Kansas City Star.

A BELATED SOUL.

It was twilight. The wind howled, the snow fell fast, and little Martine lay dying.

"Alas!" wept the mother, "will the cure never come? Thou hast been a good child, and must thy unblest soul wander without the gates of paradise? Ah, I can bear it no longer!" And she ran out into the night to find the laggard priest.

Martine shivered. She feared to die alone. But suddenly a tender voice breathed her name.

"Martine, knowest thou the good God confesses, through his angels, the souls of children?"

"Tell me thy sins."

The girl raised her eyes and beheld a dim white form with folded wings and a bowed head rippled over with golden curls. And strength came to her to speak. She confessed her poor little faults bravely and bowed her head for absolution.

"Wait!" said the angel. "So thou hast stolen a rose colored kerchief from thy friend Babette?"

"Forgive!" murmured Martine. "What hast thou done with this kerchief?"

"I have it here, beneath my pillow, mislaid."

"But why hast thou not returned it?"

"'Twill become me well on my deathbed," sighed the little Martine.

"Fie! Vain one!" cried the angel severely. "I see well thou dost not repent truly of this fault and must do penance ere I grant thee absolution."

"Rise!"

"Take this kerchief and restore it to Babette!"

"But," exclaimed Martine, stupefied, "if my mother return with the cure, to seek me on my deathbed?"

"Teach not thy betters. I will assume thy shape. But mark the hour! St. Peter has orders to admit thee at dawn. Beware of being late, for I cannot assume thy soul's shape and seek entrance for thee to paradise. Neither can I claim my own place there until I give account of thee. I might be doomed to wander here on earth, or, in fact," he added impatiently, "no one can say what complications might arise."

"I will hasten!" cried Martine, springing from the bed. Dressing with haste, she wrapped herself in her warm cloak and ran joyously from the house.

The snow ceased falling; the wind died among the trees; the stars came out and twinkled merrily. Then the moon rose, dimming the light of the stars, turning the icicles to diamonds and the frozen ground to glass. And Martine ran, danced, skipped and sang!

How beautiful was life and youth and health! Her limbs were as strong, her blood as warm, as before the fever laid its wasting hand upon her.

Alas! It is hard to die—at 16!

"It cannot be more than 7 o'clock," she thought, "and I have until day-break." But she could not stay her dancing feet, and soon the lights of the village glimmered softly through the trees. There to the right lay the home of Babette! An instant more, and she stood upon the threshold.

"Martine! Dear Martine!" a chorus of gay voices greeted her. "Martine, we heard that you were ill and dying!"

Martine shuddered. "And so indeed I am," she thought sadly.

"Come with us, Martine," cried Babette. "Good M. Champagnel has offered us his barn for a dance, for it is the fête of our little Lucienne."

"Come!"

"Surely thou art well enough to dance!"

"Nay!" exclaimed Martine, thrusting the kerchief into Babette's hand. "I have come to restore this, for indeed I have not long to live, only the short night!"

A burst of laughter interrupted her. "Thou art mad, little one!" cried tall Pierre, the handsomest lad in the village. "Thy cheeks are as bright as the kerchief! But since thou hast but this night to live dance it through with me."

"Surely there is no harm in that," thought Martine. "I can still be home before the dawn."

Once the dance had begun she forgot her doubts and everything else, for she had a light foot, this little Martine! And the sky was already gray in the east when there came a sound of horses' hoofs and laughing voices, and the barn doors were flung wide open, and a band of gentlemen, richly dressed, appeared before the astonished peasants.

"Your prince, good people!" cried one of the gentlemen, "desires to look on your merry-making!" And Martine saw in their midst a tall figure, in a cloak of white velvet, and with shining golden curls.

"The angel!" she murmured, trembling.

But as the abashed peasants remained silent the prince threw off his velvet cloak, and stepping forth in his white doublet and hose he gave a sign to the musicians, and seizing the hand of little Martine led the dance himself. Soon all the peasant lads were frowning blackly against the wall, but their sweethearts trod a measure with the gallants of the court. And before the dance was done Martine would have died for love of the prince!

"Thou art beautiful, little one!" he whispered. "Wilt ride away with me?" And as she only blushed for answer he drew her past the doors, and placing her before him on the saddle rode like the wind to his chateau on the hills.

And with his kisses raining on her brow and lips Martine forgot her promise to return, forgot the angel who must die in her stead, forgot that Peter had orders to open the gates of paradise at earliest dawn!

And when the morning broke clear and red over the verdant hills the gates of another paradise had opened for little Martine.

A happy year ran away. Sometimes Martine thought of the poor mother, weeping at home. "But she must have wept as bitterly had I returned to die," thought Martine, and she smiled on her prince.

But one winter's morning, just a year from the day when Martine should have yielded up her soul, the prince rode forth never to return. His retainers sought him through forest and field, over hill and dale, along the course of every frozen stream—in vain!

Martine sobbed and sighed in the chateau on the hills, and on the night before another year was out she crept unseen from the castle gates, down the mountain side, and journeyed through the forest until she came to her childhood's home. She pushed open the door, but there was none within. Then she went wearily on to the churchyard, and there she found her mother's grave and beside it a little slab which bore the name "Martine."

"Alas! I am justly punished," she sobbed, throwing herself down on the little grave. "The good angel who gave his life for mine wanders, forever perhaps, without the gates of paradise. Forgive! Forgive! I have returned at last. Take thou my life and let my soul do penance for thy suffering and my sin!"

"Nay!" said a tender voice beside her, and raising her streaming eyes Martine saw again the dim form with folded wings and bowed head rippling over with golden curls. "I have been shut out from paradise, 'tis true, but by thy side, in mortal shape, my love, I found a paradise on earth!"

The white hands parted before the bowed face, and Martine beheld the adored countenance of her prince. With a glad cry she threw herself upon his breast, her eyes closed as if in peaceful slumber, and with a faint, sweet sigh her spirit took flight with his to the glorious gates of paradise.

"You have been a long time finding this one," said St. Peter.

"True, good Peter," replied the angel quietly, folding Martine tenderly under his wings, "but this soul had to be prepared for paradise!"

And together they floated hand in hand through the celestial gates. — From the French of Mendes.

He Won.

There is continued strife between the Bloomleights. It is only a question now as to which has the greater wit, whether they get a separation from each other or not.

They fell to disputing the other morning as to which was more at fault for the lack of amenities so noticeable in their home, and after a series of small squabbles Bloomleigh proposed that they settle the question by each keeping count of the unpleasant remarks made by the other for a week. If he was victorious, he was to take his holiday at once, while if she won the contest she was to visit her mother without delay, thus leaving the victor in either case to the glorious and undisputed possession of the field. Mrs. Bloomleigh accepted the terms.

The effect was wonderful. Peace floated with outspread wings over the Bloomleigh domicile for six days. On the morning of the seventh Mr. Bloomleigh looked across the table at his wife and asked, "Have you checked any ill natured remarks against my account, my dear?"

"No," she replied. "You have controlled your tongue remarkably well. Have you any against me?"

"Three hundred and twelve," he remarked calmly.

"What!" she exclaimed. "That cannot be. I have not said a single thing I've felt like saying to you for a week."

"I know it," said Bloomleigh. "You said them to the cook. They had to come out, of course. I'll start tomorrow." — London Tit-Bits.

In Our Dreams.

The professor of psychology was conversing with Mr. Higgins, the grocer, as that worthy man was wrapping up five pounds of coffee for the professor.

"Did you ever notice, Mr. Higgins," remarked the professor, "that what occurs to you in dreams never seems to be at all strange or out of the ordinary?"

"Come to think of it, professor," replied Mr. Higgins, "I have, but I never give it much study. No, that you mention it I recollect several dreams I have had that seemed to be right enough until I waked up and got to thinking about 'em."

"Ah," beamed the professor, "that is interesting. Tell me about them."

"Well," and Mr. Higgins shoved the wrapped up coffee across the counter to the professor, "they didn't amount to no great deal, I guess. I only dreamed that my wife couldn't talk." — Detroit Free Press.

The Truth of It.

Teacher—Johnny, can you define for us the difference between "caution" and "cowardice?"

Johnny—Yessum. When you're scart to go out on a boat and stay home for fear it'll sink and the boat comes in all right, it's "caution."

Teacher—Well?

Johnny—And if you're scart and stay home and the boat does sink, then it's "caution." — Chicago Record.

Had Already Been Cleaned Out.

Chapple—The funniest thing happened to me last night. I was held up by a highwayman.

Chollie—I don't see anything funny in that.

Chapple—But I had just been to the church bazar before he did it.—Judge.

Must Take Their Chances.

"What do you think of these eggs?" whispered the lean man.

"These eggs," responded the fat boarder, whose occupation was that of advertising clerk in a newspaper office, "are too late to classify." — Chicago Tribune.

Satisfied.

Father—You must know, sir, that my daughter will get nothing from me until my death.

Suitor (pleasantly)—Oh, that's all right, sir; that's all right! I have enough to live on for two or three years.—Puck.

Every Rule Has Its Exceptions.

Gilgal—Should a man always wait until the lady with him is seated before sitting down himself?

Gargyle—Unless she wishes to sit in his lap.—Town Topics.

Decided Advantage.

Fat Lady—Say, the two-headed girl has a great snap.

Circassian Beauty—How?

Fat Lady—She can tell herself when her hats are on straight.—Town Topics.

Inherited.

Struckile—How did you get your crest; pay for it?

Borneo—No, thank heavens, I am not a snob. My grandfather paid for it for me.—N. Y. World.

Ananias' Brother.

The boys that whisper soft and low: "I never loved another,"

Must think the maidens do not know Ananias had a brother.

—Philadelphia Record.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system as will be seen by the accompanying cut.

The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric currents conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom they treat the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject, long since realized the truth of the statement, and his Restorative Nerve is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing the remedy amply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostrated sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Restorative Nerve positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

SPICER BROS., GENERAL MACBINISTS

16 S. River Street.

Pulleys, Shafting, Hangers, Saw Arbors And all Machine Supplies, Engines, Bicycles, Lawn Mowers Repaired on Short Notice

Return Flue Self-Cleaning Damper warranted to save 25 to 50 per cent of fuel and make more heat in any kind of stove. If after ten days trial it does not prove this, warrant the damper will be taken back and money refunded. Call and see them.

LEADS THE WORLD.

Libbey's AMERICAN CUT GLASS.

Highest Award World's Fair.

If you want the finest quality cut glass, buy goods having this trade mark.

W. G. Wheelock, Toledo, O.

Four Grocer to Send You

KINGSFORD'S

OSWEGO

CORN STARCH,

PUREST and BEST

For Puddings, Custards, Blanc Mange, &c

Use Kingsford's "Silver Gloss" and "Pure" Starch for the laundry; it's unexcelled.

For Sale by all Grocers.

7 & 9 South River Street.

$2 PANTS $2

4 Ply Linen Collars 10c

4 " " Cuffs 10c

4 " BETTER Linen Cuffs 15c

Not a pant in the house cost us less than $3.50 from that to $6. Your choice $2.

Same kind of linen collars and cuffs you pay 25 cents each for elsewhere.

All the Latest Styles.

FRANK H. BAACK,

7 AND 9 S. RIVER STREET.

Everything At Prime Cost.

Having bought the Stock of Goods owned by The Hub, at 103 W. Milwaukee St. we will sell for a few days at exact cost to us. Also to close out as much as possible of our stock at the corner of River and Milwaukee. We will also Sell at our cost figure. Come and get anything you wish at our Cost Sale of Chinaware, Crockery, Glassware, Notions, Etc, at

Milwaukee & River Sts.,

—AND—

103 W. Milwaukee St.

: THE FAIR, :

H. W. Coon, Prop.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

Entered at the postoffice as Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter.

Terms of Subscription.

Daily edition one year.....$8.00

Parts of a year, per month.....50

Weekly edition, one year.....1.50

Special Advertising Notice.

We charge full rates for cards of thanks, obituary poems, financial statements of insurance companies, and all other classes of items not considered news.

We publish free, marriages, deaths and obituary notices, without poetry; also notices of church and society meetings.

We publish at half rate, church and society rates of entertainments given for revenue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1764—J. B. Bernadotte, French soldier who became king of Sweden, born; died 1844.

1823—Dr. Edward Jenner, inventor of vaccination, died; born 1749. Dr. Jenner accidentally discovered that milkers were unconsciously inoculated so as to prevent their taking smallpox. He experimented 20 years in propagating cowpox and finally secured the endorsement of an influential body of physicians and surgeons.

1850—Francis Jeffrey, famous British critic and senator of the college of justice, died in Edinburgh; born 1773.

1885—Fall of Khartum and assassination of General Charles Gordon. Gordon had held the city ten months against the mahdi's hordes. It fell through the treachery of a pasha two days before a relief column arrived.

FALSE STEP OF STRIKERS.

The Brooklyn electric railway men struck not for higher wages, but on the ground that the company was compelling them to work for a longer time daily than the ten hours fixed by law in New York, as the limit of a day's work. If they had held their places and appealed to the courts for a remedy for their grievances their position would have been impregnable, and their success certain. But when they abandoned their places and undertook to enforce their demands by violence and by lawless obstruction of the street railway traffic they made their failure inevitable.

MR. CLEVELAND'S POLICIES

The financial policy of the present administration is in line with its policy abroad. It finds its highest expression in an effort to restore prosperity by discouraging thrift through the imposition of an income tax and in an attempt to uphold the credit of the government by increasing its bearing debt by means of needless bond issues. If that sort of botchwork is really statesmanship, it is clearly of a brand that is badly run down at the heel.

Mr. Cleveland says that Hawaii in its relation to us is a foreign country, but he forgot to add that it was he who made it so, in defiance to the wishes of three fourths of the citizens of the United States, by preventing the annexation which was almost accomplished by the Harrison administration.

The New York woman who was accidentally vaccinated on her nose, furnishes an idea that might be utilized upon those troublesome folk who are always trying to poke their noses into the affairs of others. Perhaps meddlingness may yet be perverted by inoculation.

The president of France resigned because he thought the national assembly did not have confidence in him and three of his predecessors did likewise. The president of the United States doesn't resign for a little thing like that.

Japan is said to be looking on Hawaii with greedy eyes. What would the administration do if Japan by force, as it could easily do, there being more than 20,000 Japs residing in Hawaii, took possession?

When politicians profess to be most anxious to confide in "my fellow citizens," as Mr. Cleveland puts it, they are in need of the closest watching.

When Dick Croker goes to England, Wales would better not try to catch him with marked cards.

If Rear Admiral Walker is an I-told-you-so sort of a man he ought to be supremely happy.

That slipped trolley in Brooklyn was a very expensive affair to all concerned.

More than 90,000,000 Passengers.

Have been carried by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry. during the past twenty-five years. Very few were unable to find any fault. The rest were delighted. One of them recently said—"For several years past I have made from two to four trips each month between Chicago and New York and almost always accompanied by from one to three or four others. I believe (as I am informed by your conductors), that I have made more trips between Chicago and New York than any other man during the past few years. I have always traveled over your road in preference to any other, because by careful comparisons with others I have found not only that the road itself is far superior, but the table and the service are in every respect the best of any roads I have ever traveled on. The conductors, stewards, waiters and porters I have found to be uniformly courteous and attentive adding greatly to the comfort of those who are obliged to travel as much as I am. Trains leave Chicago as follows:

3:00 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 3:25 p. m., 5:30 p. m., 8:45 p. m.; daily, and 11: p. m. daily except Sunday. H. S. Barlow, T. P. A., 139 Biddle Street, Milwaukee, Wis.; C. K. Wilber, W. P. A., Chicago.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL GOSSIP.

THE coming week ends my cost sale until next January. Those who have taken advantage of it, have bought furniture at less money, than ever sold any where before, at retail. Customers have not only received goods at factory prices, but have had all my cash discounts. Do not wait too long if you need furniture. Call and get my prices. W. H. Ashcraft, furniture undertaking.

SEWING is a part of a household duty that every woman has to take care of. In some instances they put it off until the last minute. A great help for this can be learned by reading Bort, Bailey & Co's ad.

We thought we would have to store our sleighs but now kind providence has smiled on us again. Fine sleighing and we have just the kind of sleighs that make riding a pleasure, cheap. Janesville Carriage Works.

How many words have you formed out of "Cuticream, P. & E. & O. P. O?" It is very good amusement and there is $15 in it for some one April 1. Better get a label at Prentice & Evenson's and try it.

NEXT Friday we move to our new store room 103 W. Milwaukee street, formerly occupied by J. B. Green & Co., until that time we will sell anything in the house at exact cost to us. The Fair.

ALL kinds of sleighs and cutters very cheap. Now that snow is here we want to finish them up. Here is where you can get good sleighs for little money. Janesville Carriage Works.

Go to Prentice & Evenson's for one of those Cuticream labels properly stamped, so you can have your name put on the list as an applicant for $10 in gold April 1.

THE kind of sleighs the "upper ten" in Washington, D. C., ride in can be seen at F. C. Taylor's, corner Court and River streets.

ALL cloaks now on hand must be closed before the season ends. No difference what price we get, they must go. T. P. Burns.

AFTER you get your pay this evening, step down to 7 and 9 South River street and get the best pair of pants you ever saw for $2.

THE only place one can get those adjustable bath tub seats is at Green & Allen's, 6 W. Milwaukee street. Very desirable.

If you want one of those overcoats for $6, better come and get it before February 7, as the sale will be off then. Ziegler.

MUNGER's number is 20 North Main street; his telephone 168; and he is making some exceedingly low prices on groceries.

OUR excellent plumbing work is becoming known and we are kept quite busy. All we ask is a trial. Green & Allen.

EVERY item of profit has been taken off our goods, and will remain so until February 1, when we move. The Fair.

GET your name on the list for one of the cash prizes Prentice & Evenson will give away April 1.

F. M. MARZLUFF has bought the residence of Mrs. Sophia J. Bemis on South Jackson street.

WE are determined to close out all cloaks at some price before the season closes. T. P. Burns.

MISS ADA LUDLOW of Monroe, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie.

THIRTY three pounds New Orleans C sugar for $1.00 at Grubb Bros.

PONY cutters, a handsome line at the Janesville Carriage Works.

GET a Cuticream label and get your name on the list. P. & E.

Annual Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Janesville will be held at the rooms of the association on Tuesday evening, January 29. Reports of standing committees will be heard and the election of officers and directors for the ensuing year will take place; also any other business which may properly come before the meeting. A full attendance of all members is desired.

Notice.

I have sold the Red oil wagon and route to Mr. Clyde, 105 Chatham street, who took possession Thursday, January 24. I cheerfully recommend him to my old patrons. All accounts due me must be settled without delay. G. H. MERRY.

Notice.

Any parties having claims against the old firm of Metcalf & Cleland are requested to present the same without delay. Parties knowing themselves indebted are requested to call and settle. J. C. METCALF, C. S. CLELAND.

Another Juror for Hayward.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 26.—Only one juror was secured in the Hayward trial yesterday, although every person drawn on the last venire who was present was examined. After this juror had been accepted the court adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day. The new venire will have been drawn by that time and a fresh supply of men will be on hand. Hayward is still confident of acquittal.

Financial Statement for Wisconsin. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 26.—In the senate yesterday a resolution was adopted providing for a financial statement, by the secretary of state of the state treasury Jan. 7, 1895. A bill was introduced to appropriate $25,000 for monuments in the National park at Chickamauga, Tenn., and several bills for boiler inspection were introduced in the assembly.

FIFTY MEN IN THE PLOT.

Full Details of Scott Murder Laid Before the Authorities.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 26.—Developments in the Scott case have laid the whole conspiracy, which resulted in a lynching, before the authorities. Fifty men are involved in the affair, many of state prominence. It proves to be the work of the oathbound organization which has for a quarter of a century held sway in Holt County and defied the law. How far the conspiracy extended is indicated by the list of the members of the committee that is now in the hands of the attorney-general. This includes over fifty names, among them being one or two ex-members of the legislature.

Michigan's Lower Peninsula Swept.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 26.—The blizzard arrived in Michigan promptly on time yesterday and held the entire state in its grasp. Trains from the west and north were all late, but no accident or serious delay has been reported. Reports from all sections of lower peninsula show the storm is general. Every town heard from reports a howling gale and blinding snow storm prevailing. Trains are behind time and street cars are running infrequently or not at all.

Guatemala Wants Peace.

GUATEMALA, Jan. 26.—Senor de Leon, the special envoy sent to Mexico to negotiate an adjustment of the difficulties over the boundary line between the two countries, telegraphs that Mexico is making active preparations for war. Upon receipt of this news the Guatemala government wired to Senor de Leon authorizing him to make concessions if no further delay can be obtained.

Chicago Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The following table shows the range of quotations on the Chicago Board of Trade to-day:

ARTICLES.	High.	Low.	Jan. 25	Jan. 24.
Wheat—2
Jan....	.51	.50	.50	.51
May....	.54	.53	.53	.54
July....	.55	.54	.54	.55
Corn—2
Jan....	.43	.42	.43	.43
May....	.45	.45	.45	.45
July....	.45	.44	.45	.45
Oats—2
Jan....	.28	.28	.28	.28
May....	.29	.29	.29	.29
June....	.29	.29	.29	.29
For—
Jan....	10.50	10.30	10.37	10.35
May....	10.75	10.50	11.02	10.60
Lard—
Jan....	6.52	6.45	6.50	6.42
May....	6.70	6.60	6.67	6.60
S. Ribs—
Jan....	5.60	5.50	5.40	5.37
May....	5.60	5.50	5.55	5.52

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

World's Fair Highest Award.

FOR RENT.

Notices In This Column Five Cents

a Line for Each Insertion.

FOR RENT—A new house with all modern improvements, in a desirable location. Dr. Sutherland.

FOR RENT—Furnished room at 160 Prospect avenue.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—A new banjo and case cheap Address box 1103, P. O.

LOOK at that $400 lot on Main street, with electric cars and city water in front. It is cheap at $600 for a "homestead," or to hold as an investment. C. E. Bowles.

FOR SALE—One set of light runners for a buggy. Inquire of F. A. Taylor, the man with more sleighs than money.

MONEY to loan on good mortgage security C. E. Bowles.

FOR SALE—A large new heating stove. Inquire at The Hub, 103 W. Milwaukee St.

SPECIAL Sale of live oil soap this week at Heilmann's drug store, just half price, get a cake at this price.

FOR SALE—A beautiful music box. All the new music of the day can be played, something new. Call and hear it at Heilmann's.

FOR SALE—Store show case at Heilmann's.

FOUND—Near the ostrich farm, a young live alligator, very lively, can be seen at Heilmann's drug store.

DO YOU READ

$1000 REWARD

The elegant Luzerne were $2, only a handful left at $1.25 Heavy Jersey cotton ribbed were 75c, clear em up at..... 50c

All Gloves and Mitts at actual cost to produce We are clearing up our winter goods.

Think of the weather we've been having and prepare for No. 2 Profits will be lost to us until March 1 on all heavy weights. Will you drop in and be convinced that we are truthful advertisers, and never advertise having a hundred dozen of anything when really we may have only one.

Yours truly,
KNEFF & ALLEN.
Tailors and Outfitters. Near the bridge.

SLEIGHS! SLEIGHS!

RIVER & COURT STREETS.

From $25 Up as High As You Want To Go.

The Best Stock Of Ever Came to Janesville.

WHEN THE BEST ARE TO BE HAD AT THE SAME PRICE.

SLEIGHS

F. A. TAYLOR,
Successor to H. H. Harris.
CORNER RIVER & COURT STREETS.

Footprints in the Snow

Lead to Brown Bros. & Lincoln. Feet and their fortunes. A fellow feeling for you feet. You can't go bare-footed. We want to shoe you; you want to be shod. How does this strike you?

Notice the Makes - Compare the Prices.

Marzluff's handsewed pat. leather quarters..... 3.00

" " fine dongola at..... 2.50

" Fine dongola pat tip..... 2.50

" " " "..... 2.00

" 7 Button Wonder..... 2.00

Goodyear Glove storm Alaskas..... 1.00

" " Rubbers..... .50

" " Fine rubbers..... .40

Rhode Island " "..... .30

" Misses and Childrens..... .25

We don't expect your patronage unless we can convince you its for your interest to trade with us. Compare the quality. Compare the price. Weigh in the balance if against us. We leave the decision with you.

BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

SAW SPLIT HIS SKULL AND LEFT HIM DYING

J. W. McCARTHY KILLED WHILE CUTTING WOOD.

Iron Shaft, on One End of Which Was a Swiftly Whirling Blade Swung Through the Air and Split Him From Forehead to Breast—Death Came Soon Afterwards.

Split from his forehead to his breast J. W. McCarthy died last night. A flying circular saw had ripped a great gash in his skull, split one eye in its socket, cut a way through his face and gone tearing down through clothing, flesh and bone until it struck the ground. So singular was the accident that onlookers cannot explain how it occurred.

McCarthy was helping a gang of wood sawyers on the Atteley farm in Porter. He stood beside the saw—a horse power affair—and was handling the sticks. Suddenly, far too suddenly for any cry of warning to be heard, one of the bearings broke. All that anybody knew was that the steady buzz of the saw was heard one moment, a sudden "chug" the next, and young McCarthy lay on the ground horribly mangled—his blood reddening the snow and sawdust.

Cause of The Accident.

The saw was completely disabled. It was one of the ordinary pattern—a twelve-inch circular blade set in a wooden frame, with a sliding feed. On the end of the shaft opposite the blade, was a 150-pound balance wheel. McCarthy stood on the side. Something hit the wheel hard enough to break the bearing on the opposite end of the shaft. Loose at one end and having the impulse of a power belt at the other, the shaft flew up. At the free end was that saw blade still whirling swiftly. Like an ancient battle ax of Titonic proportions it came down on the unfortunate man's head. Steel would not have stood against such a blow and there was hardly a sound as the sharp teeth went through bone and flesh.

Wounded Man Cared For Promptly.

McCarthy fell without a cry. He was picked up by his companions and hurriedly borne to the house. Dr. Willard McChesney of Edgerton, was sent for and Rev. Father Rowe was called to administer spiritual consolation.

McCarthy lingered until 11 o'clock in the evening. Then his vitality gave out and life ebbed away. Exceptional sadness was added to the case by the fact that the young man was married only a little over a year ago and leaves a wife and child.

Theory of the Physicians.

Dr. Q. O. Sutherland who assisted in dressing the wounds said today:

"McCarthy's skull was split, the steel penetrating the brain. I think the saw must have burst as I saw many fragments of it."

Dr. McChesney's idea, after looking over the ground, was that a stick of wood from the saw had been thrown so as to lodge in the balance wheel. The wheel was not solid, but was cast with spokes, so such a mishap would be possible.

JOHN DEWEY'S ORANGES FROZEN

Former Janesville Man a Heavy Loser by the Frost in Florida.

John Dewey writes to Mayor Thoroughgood from Wison, Florida, that the recent cold wave in that state killed his orange crop. He says:

"I had gotten off about one-fifth of my crop when an old acquaintance of mine from the north arrived and closed up the orange business. I did not know that he had any claim on my crop, but he appeared to have, and so took it with his own harvesting method and killed most of the trees. His name like yours and mine, and a lot more of 'bad ones' begins with John or Jack, but while yours ends in 'good' and mine in gentle 'Dew'—he writes his 'Frost' and his signature is plainly written all over Florida. It is out of the question to make a reliable estimate of the damage done. The Dewey family, dog, horse and all, are in good health and like Brete Hart's 'Preacher at Poker Flat' dead broke but cheerful." We are making cigars but I do not think we will sell them for a year or two as the smokers will now be forced to smoke weeds in a cob pipe."

JUBILEE FOR A LOCAL CHURCH.

Congregationalists Plan For Their Fiftieth Anniversary—Rev. Sawin To Be Here.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Congregational church will be celebrated with appropriate exercises February 10-12. Invitations have been issued to all who have ever been members of the church to share in the festivities of the occasion. The exercises will open on Sunday morning with an anniversary sermon by Rev. T. P. Sawin, well remembered as a former pastor of the church, now of Troy, N. Y. Monday and Tuesday following will be filled by various historical papers, reminiscences of the early days, and social fellowship. It is expected that many friends of the church who have removed from the city will be present to renew the associations of early days. Monday afternoon will be given to the annual home gathering and business meeting of the church. The exercises will be in the audience room of the church and the general public are cordially invited to share in the joy of this jubilee celebration.

Tuckwoods.

Having organized my orchestra and secured a first class harpist to the latest music I am prepared to furnish music for public or private parties. Call on or address, No. 6, S. Franklin street.

BERLIN WORKS SUIT SETTLED.

E. G. Richards and the Company Fix Matters Up Out of Court.

Judge Bennett will not try the suit between the Berlin Machine Company of Beloit and E. G. Richards, their former superintendent, who removed to Green Bay and started a new company, as the matter has been settled out of court.

THE TOWN TALK OF A DAY

The January meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church was held with Mrs. E. H. Pence, this afternoon. Roll call was responded to with a sentence setting forth some facts concerning Korea and letters from personal friends in that country were read.

C. S. AND E. W. PUTNAM incurred the everlasting gratitude of Second ward people this morning by swinging around the circle with a snow plow. The Roseling brothers did the same charitable act on South Main street.

A BROADHEAD paper says: "Mrs. Hemming and Miss Lovejoy of Janesville, attended the dancing club party last evening. Miss Lovejoy returned this morning, Mrs. Hemming remaining for a short visit with Mrs. C. H. Lewis."

The Epworth League lecture course will be open next Tuesday evening by Rev. Joseph F. Berry D. D., editor Epworth Herald. Subject "An Irish Tramp." Dr. Berry is an excellent speaker and will delight all who hear him."

ACCORDING to the Broadhead Independent Mrs. Frank Echlin of Janesville, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kirkpatrick at that city, and Miss Kittie Shopbell is there this week.

LIEUTENANT F. E. GREEN, U. S. N., is now navigator on board the United States ship Ranger, which was sent to Honolulu yesterday. Mrs. Green will leave San Francisco on February 6, for Honolulu to join her husband.

Those who are to take part in the Imperial band benefit entertainment will meet at the band room at 3 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual, tomorrow afternoon and a full attendance is requested.

SHERIFF APPLEBY was called to North River street during the storm last night, to take charge of an unruly drunk who was doing his best to lodge in a snow drift and freeze to death.

DUG KING did a good thing this morning besides making many house owners and occupants smile when he passed along cleaning the snow drifts from the walks with his horse snow plow.

GEORGE C. McLEAN was slightly stronger at 4 p. m. to-day, and it was thought that if no change for the worse comes before tomorrow morning his chance for recovery will be good.

THE Epworth League lecture course will be opened next Tuesday evening in the First M. E. church by Rev. Joseph F. Berry, editor Epworth Herald. Subject, "An Irish Tramp."

THE ladies of the Associated charities are requested to meet at their rooms prepared to sew at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, July 28. M. Chittenden, sec.

AMERICA Lodge 26, Daughters of Rebekah I. O. O. F., will meet in regular monthly meeting this evening, at Odd Fellows hall, North Main street.

MR. and Mrs. C. C. Williams will hold their dancing class as usual next Monday. A social to which friends are invited will begin at 9 o'clock.

A NUMBER of Janesville young people will attend a social at La Prairie grange hall this evening, provided they can get through the snow drifts.

THE eleventh annual meeting of the Wisconsin Bee-keepers association will take place in the Capitol in Madison, Wis., February 6 and 7.

THE Humane society might find plenty of work right in their line by enforcing the snow shovel law and sparing pedestrian's muscles.

BECAUSE there is snow on the ground is no reason you cannot use the pony. We have cutters that will just fit him. Janesville Carriage Works.

J. D. REXFORD is confined to his home by illness. He has been housed several days, and does not seem to improve in health.

COMMISSIONER HANTHORN has the shovel brigade out at work shoveling snow today, under Brigadier Jerry Murphy.

OLIVER CLEMENTSON of Orfordville, fell twelve feet and broke his arm while working in his father's tobacco shed.

A LITTLE Second ward tot, who heard a cat purring, exclaimed: "Oh, listen! pussy's got a bee in her heart."

REV. W. H. WORTON celebrated the Holy Eucharist on Thursday at St. Martin's church, Broadhead.

OFFICER COCHRANE was called to the western part of the county this morning on official business.

MR. and Mrs. F. M. Lee of the Northwestern restaurant have a new girl at their home.

JANESVILLE will be represented at the dance at La Prairie Grange hall tonight.

J. S. GILKEY of the firm of Pendleton & Gilkey, is home from a trip north.

THE New York Dramatic Times desires a correspondent in this city.

"YOUR'RE talking through your millinery," is the latest slang in Clinton.

DR. HUGH MENZIES is attending to business as usual.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder Mos' Perfect Made.

NO SUCH STORM FOR THIRTY YEARS

LAST NIGHT'S STORM A RECORD BREAKER.

Combination of Wind and Snow Made the Oldest Inhabitant Pull Down His Ear Laps and Take His Stories Out of Circulation—Cold Wave Coming.

Not in thirty years has Janesville seen such a storm as last night's. It was only excelled by that of December 31, 1863, in point of temperature. Immediately after that remarkable blizzard the temperature dropped to forty degrees below zero, and on New Year's morning the temperature was clear and dry, and so cold that people could not venture out of doors except for a few minutes at a time. Railways were tied up by the snow drifts and extreme cold. There was fully as heavy a fall of snow last evening, but it did not drift quite so badly. The great snow storm in March, 1881, while breaking all records as to quantity, was very mild, as the temperature was hovering around the freezing point, and people were all out shoveling tunnels through immense drifts from their houses to the streets.

Kept Folks Home of An Evening.

"The storm last evening was the worst I ever experienced," said W. T. Vankirk. "When I went home to supper I intended to come back down town, but when I got half way up hill I could hardly move on account of the heavy wind. I concluded I would stay home."

A number of farmers who have come to the city during the day report the storm very severe in the country, the snow drifting badly. Monday's snow was much finer, however, and drifted into barns and sheds more easily than last evening.

About eight inches of snow fell during the storm yesterday and last evening, and notwithstanding it is drifted badly, will make very good sleighing.

Trains Are All Behind Time.

Trains were all from one to two hours late last night. The accommodation was an hour late and got stuck twice in a snow drift this side of Shipiere. The DeKalb express was also an hour late. This morning the Northwestern vestibule, due here at 6:25, did not arrive until 8 o'clock, and the Northwestern accommodation was a little behind time. At noon the officers reported the tracks of both the Northwestern and the St. Paul, clear of snow and all passenger trains on schedule time.

A cold wave is scheduled for tomorrow, the local bulletin reading:

Forecast: Fair and decidedly colder tonight. Sunday fair and colder. Cold wave. Temperature will fall twenty degrees by Sunday morning.

THE temperature as recorded by S. C. Burnham & Co. during the last twenty-four hours was as follows: 7 a. m., 16 above 1 p. m., 19 above Max., 20 above Min., 14 above Wind, west.

Just For a Week

And just as a FUROR DEAL, we offer a very comfortable home in the Fourth ward for $450. Just think of it, FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS will buy an almost new house of three good rooms, woodshed, good well of water; nicely located, and as a fact, it would be cheap at $600. If you have $100 cash to pay down you can have this place and pay the balance $5 or $6 per month. You never saw such a chance before and you never will again to get a good little home. This chance will cease within a week whether we sell or do not sell. Come and see us about it. Yours very truly,

Geo. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

We Tickle The Palate.

Dressed turkeys per pound 10 cents. Georgian bank stripped codfish. Thirty pounds N. O. sugar $1. Fine tomatoes per can of one gallon each, 20 cents.

20 pound pail of jelly, all kinds 35 cents. Instantaneous tapioca. Fresh celery every morning.

DUNN BROS.

Are You Loaded?

If so, we can help you unload, if you desire. We want to buy a nice modern, small house, of say seven or eight rooms, well located, at less than it is worth. You will note that it must be a BARGAIN. For such a house under such circumstances you will find a cash buyer at our office. If you are loaded, unload. Yours very truly,

Geo. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Notice to Contractors and Builders.

Having purchased the Shopbell Norris planing mill, I am now prepared to furnish estimates on all house-furnishing goods such as sash, doors, blinds, moulding, etc.

I take possession of the mill February 1st, until that time please call at the Hub, 103 W. Milwaukee street.

J. B. GREEN.

A Rare Opportunity.

We have a nicely furnished house and a delightful location that we want to let to an agreeable man and wife who will board the owner. This is a chance to get a beautiful home on very easy terms. Call and see us about it. Yours Very Truly,

Geo. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

DEBATE WON BY LOCAL SENIORS

Janesville High School Talkers Were Successful at Clinton.

Janesville high school seniors won the debate with the Clinton high school at that place last night. The question was:

"Resolved, That the Fear of Punishment Has Done More Toward Elevating the People Than the Honor of Reward."

Miss Gillies of Janesville, opened the debate on the part of the affirmative, and was followed by Mr. Dresser of Clinton, on the negative. Then came in order Mr. Enright, Miss Patcher, Miss Wiggins and Charles Dresser. Miss Gillies closed the argument. The judges were Assemblyman Jones, Prof. Rittenberg of Delavan, and Mr. Johnson. About forty from here attended.

PLANS FOR TWO Y. M. C. A. MEETINGS

Nearly Two Hundred Singing Books Given to the Association.

The program for the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock will include stirring singing, interesting talks, plenty of good fellowship and a cordial welcome to men of all nationalities. A benevolent Janesville lady has given the association 196 new singing books Nos. 5 and 6 gospel hymns and fifty-four new chairs have been secured so that all can enjoy a comfortable hour.

The meeting of the Junior department of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in the Congregational church chapel at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All boys under sixteen cordially invited. Leader, A. W. Hall. Subject: "Success or Failure."

WOULDN'T LET DR. PALMER RIDE

The St. Paul Train Dispatcher Wasn't Very Accommodating.

Dr. Henry Palmer was called to Fort Atkinson as counsel, and drove over to Whitewater to take the evening train home. Not knowing of the change of time, he was twenty minutes late. A belated freight train going west was just about to pull out, and the train dispatcher at Milwaukee was asked if the doctor might not ride on it to Milton Junction, where he could get a train south in about an hour; but permission was refused; so the doctor took the carriage again and started back to the Fort to catch the south train there, leaving the station just as the freight began to move out.

TRAMPS SET TO SHOVELING SNOW

Gang of Ten Put to Work on the Walks By Sheriff Appleby.

A squad of ten tramps serving time in the county jail for vagrancy, were taken out this morning by Sheriff Appleby and set to cleaning the walks in the court house park. They also cleaned the walks on Park street. "The boys work first rate, and appeared to enjoy it," said the sheriff, after escorting the squad back to their quarters."

NOTES FOR THE LEAF MEN.

THERE are also a few dealers nibbling away at the new crop, though there are indications yet of a general buying of these goods.

BUYERS are stirring out a little in nearly all the market points of the state, the inquiry being largely for cured leaf in which there is only a moderate movement.

THOMAS PURVIS of Beloit, who is said to represent Shubert Bros., of Chicago, purchased a few crops in the town of La Prairie during the week paying seven cents for some of them.

Sales reported are, Henry Tarrant, 8 acres '94 at 6 and 1 cents in bulk; William Kemmerer, 6 acres '94 at 7 and 1 cents in bulk; George Gower, 4 acres '94 at 7 and 1 cents in bulk; Seaman & Williams, 4 acres '94 at 5 1/2 and 1 cents in bulk; Eph. Raymond, 28 cases '93 at 5 1/2 and 1 cents. A. B. Fessenden, 14 cases '93 at 5 1/2 and 1 cents; William Fox, 14 cases '93 at 5 1/2 and 1 cents; A. Erickson, 13 cases '92 at 8 and 2 cents.

BENEATH A BURDEN OF SORROW

Mrs. John Terwilliger.

Mrs. John Terwilliger died at her home in the town of Rock last evening, and will be buried in the cemetery near Afton on Monday afternoon. Funeral services will be held at the home at 2 o'clock.

O. L. Humphrey.

O. L. Humphrey, one of the earliest settlers in this part of the state, died in Edgerton today. He came west at about the same time the Carrs, of Milton did, and was a member of the legislature in early days, representing the Dane county district.

Some More to Eat.

Gallon can apples..... 15
Gallon can tomatoes..... 15
Sauer kraut per gal..... 10
Pickles per gal..... 15
Butternuts per bu..... 40
Our own made taffy and nut candy per pound..... 10
Jelly per pail..... 35
Canned corn per can..... 5
Canned apricots per can..... 10
Sweet flour per sack..... 55
New Orleans C sugar 33 lbs for..... $1.00
GRUBB BROS.

Take a Sleigh Ride.

We have been looking for a storage room in which to put our sleighs, supposing we would have no use for them until next winter, but as you all know, it snowed last night and today everything is on runners. We have a stock of as fine sleighs as were ever shown in any town. A beauty at $25, and so on up as high as you want to go. See us before buying. We can save you money. F. A. TAYLOR.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma

MRS. M'LEAN'S WILL FILED IN PROBATE

INCOME OF $20,000 DIVIDED BETWEEN CHILDREN.

They Are to Share Alike During Their Lives—C. C. McLean Appointed Trustee in Their Interest—Estate Valued at Over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

The will of the late Nancy A. McLean was filed in the probate court today, and on motion of Attorney E. M. Hyzer, Collin C. McLean was appointed administrator. The will divides the income from the property equally between the three children during their life time. After that the income goes to the grand children. Twenty-one years after the death of the last of Mrs. McLean's children the entire property is to be divided among the grand children.

The income apportioned amounts to $20,000 a year, the property being valued at over two hundred thousand dollars. Mrs. R. E. Bigelow, Mrs. A. D. Smith and George Van Etta are the children.

MILTON ODD FELLOWS HALL SOLD

Foreclosure Proceedings Result in a Judgment Being Given to Mrs. E. Butler.

Odd Fellows hall and building in Milton is to be sold on a judgment of foreclosure rendered this morning in the circuit court for $2,330 in favor of Mrs. Elizabeth Butler, of this city. The building was formerly owned by the Odd Fellows, afterwards sold to Thomas J. Lloyd, then to F. C. Peters, of Harvard, who sold it to Alex. Richardson of this city, who now holds the equity.

Janesville Markets.

Range of prices in the local market. Quotations corrected daily by Frank Gray:

Wheat—75c @ 90 per sack
WHEAT—Good to best quality 45c @ 50c.
BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—25c @ 30c per sack.
RYE—In good request at 45c @ 50c per 80 lbs.
BARLEY—At 42c @ 45c, according to quality.
BUCKWHEAT—55c @ 60c
BRANS—At $1.30 @ 1.50 per bu.
COB—Old 42c @ 45c; new, ear, per 75 lbs., 24c @ 25c.
OATS—White At 25c @ 27c;
GROUND FEED—$1.00 @ 1.10 per 100 lbs.
MEAL—See per 100 lbs. Boiled $1.50.
FEED—80c @ $1.00 per 100
BRAN—75c per 100 lbs. $1.50 per ton.
MIDDLINGS—75c per 100, $15.00 per ton.
HAY—Timothy per ton, $7.00 @ $8.00; other kinds $6 @ 7
STRAW—Per ton—$4.50 @ $5.00.
CLOVER SEED—$4.50 @ 5.00 per bushel.
TIMOTHY SEED—$1.50 @ $2.20.
POTATOES—45c @ 50 per bushel
BUCKWHEAT FEED—$10.00 per ton.
WOOL—Salable at 12c @ 10c, for washed and 8c @ 7c for unwashed.
BUTTER—Good supply at 16c @ 18c.
EGGS—Scarce at 17c @ 18 doz.
HIDES—Range 25c @ 30c. Dry 50c @ 60c.
HAMS—Range at 25c @ 30c each.
POULTRY—Turkeys 80c @ 90c chickens 70c @ 80c.
LIVE STOCK—Hogs $3.50 @ $4.00 per 100 lbs.
CATTLE 2.00 @ $3.25

The Congressman.

The wind, it bloweth good and strong. And sometimes drops. The congressman is not that kind—He never stops.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

"Is he a good artist?" She glanced at his innocent Philadelphia nibs with petulant disdain. "He is a clever artist," she answered pityingly. "No artists are good."—Life.

Chance for Gallantry.

Congressman—What is the matter, madam? Fair Wheeler—I have punctured my bicycle tire. Here is the place. Won't you please make a speech into it?—N. Y. Weekly.

The Din of Home.

Smithers—Do you live here? I should think that boiler factory opposite would drive you mad. Withers—Not at all, old man. Never hear it. Got a baby inside, teething.—Truth.

Duchess of Marlborough to Wed.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—It is now positively announced that Lord William Beresford is to be married to the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Mrs. Louis Hammersley of New York, during the coming spring.

Hungry Fido—I can resist ordinary temptations, but I never saw such a one as this before.—Times Siftings.

In New York.

"Is he a good artist?" She glanced at his innocent Philadelphia nibs with petulant disdain. "He is a clever artist," she answered pityingly. "No artists are good."—Life.

Chance for Gallantry.

Congressman—What is the matter, madam? Fair Wheeler—I have punctured my bicycle tire. Here is the place. Won't you please make a speech into it?—N. Y. Weekly.

The Din of Home.

Smithers—Do you live here? I should think that boiler factory opposite would drive you mad. Withers—Not at all, old man. Never hear it. Got a baby inside, teething.—Truth.

Duchess of Marlborough to Wed.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—It is now positively announced that Lord William Beresford is to be married to the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Mrs. Louis Hammersley of New York, during the coming spring.

Hungry Fido—I can resist ordinary temptations, but I never saw such a one as this before.—Times Siftings.

In New York.

"Is he a good artist?" She glanced at his innocent Philadelphia nibs with petulant disdain. "He is a clever artist," she answered pityingly. "No artists are good."—Life.

Chance for Gallantry.

Congressman—What is the matter, madam? Fair Wheeler—I have punctured my bicycle tire. Here is the place. Won't you please make a speech into it?—N. Y. Weekly.

The Din of Home.

Smithers—Do you live here? I should think that boiler factory opposite would drive you mad. Withers—Not at all, old man. Never hear it. Got a baby inside, teething.—Truth.

Duchess of Marlborough to Wed.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—It is now positively announced that Lord William Beresford is to be married to the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Mrs. Louis Hammersley of New York, during the coming spring.

Hungry Fido—I can resist ordinary temptations, but I never saw such a one as this before.—Times Siftings.

In New York.

"Is he a good artist?" She glanced at his innocent Philadelphia nibs with petulant disdain. "He is a clever artist," she answered pityingly. "No artists are good."—Life.

Chance for Gallantry.

Congressman—What is the matter, madam? Fair Wheeler—I have punctured my bicycle tire. Here is the place. Won't you please make a speech into it?—N. Y. Weekly.

ALMOST A MIRACLE

A Well Known Railroad Man's Experience. Life Saved In a Way Which Is Wonderful, and Ought To Be Told Everywhere Far and Wide.

MR. CHARLES ANNABLE.

There is no better known railroad man than Mr. Charles Annable, who resides at 20 Jordan avenue, Brunswick, Maine. He has occupied trusted positions for thirty years on the Maine Central railroad.

"Yes," said Mr. Annable to the writer, "I can tell some remarkable stories from my long thirty years' railroad experience, but something has happened lately which is of the greatest importance to the people. Before I speak of myself however, let my wife relate her wonderful experience."

"I have been troubled," began Mrs. Annable, "so bad with neuralgia that I could not turn my head in bed. It seemed as though my head was paralyzed. I was so troubled with heart disease and palpitation that a good many nights I thought I might pass away during the night."

"I suffered severely, and expected every day would be my last. My head seemed sometimes as though it would be paralyzed, and the least exertion would upset me and render me terribly weak and nervous. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and it completely cured me—made me well and strong again."

"It seems as though my cure was almost a miracle, for I am now cured. My neighbors, well knowing my condition, are astonished at my recovery, and I cannot half highly enough express my gratitude for this wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I shall be glad to answer inquiries at any time."

"I also have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy," said Mr. Annable, "and have derived great benefit from its use. I know it is the best of all medicines. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and shall continue to do so upon every chance."

The enthusiasm of Mr. and Mrs. Annable in regard to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is not to be wondered at. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, wonderful because it cures almost everybody who uses it. It makes the sick well everywhere. It gives health and strength to the weak, tired and nervous sufferer. It gives good digestion to the dyspeptic, sweet sleep to the sleepless, and makes life again a joy and pleasure to those whom weak nerves and tired brains have rendered depressed in spirits, melancholy, discouraged and well-nigh hopeless. Use it and it will make you well. Doctors recommend it because it is the discovery and prescription of the well-known physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, who is without doubt the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted in all cases without charge, personally or by letter.

HE REMINDED HER.

His "I Done It" Stories Had Nettled the Girl From Boston.

A Buffalo young man, who is fresh to a degree that surpasses endurance and who persists in talking all the time there is anybody in sight, went out for the evening one night recently and met a girl from Boston.

Although the young man talks continually he occasionally uses some very bad grammar. One fault is particularly glaring. He invariably says "I done it" for "I did it," and, as he is continually talking about himself, he makes this mistake many times in the course of an hour.

He engaged the Boston girl in conversation and told her some fairy tale about something or other that had happened to him. When he got through she expressed surprise that such a thing could happen, and asked him:

"Did you really do all that?"

"I done it," replied the young man proudly.

Then he branched into another romance.

This was even more startling than the first. The girl from Boston listened patiently, and, when he had finished, politely expressed her great astonishment. "Why," she said, "can it be possible that you did anything so wonderful?"

"That's what I done," replied the young man, chucking out his chest as he made the remark.

The great success of his two stories spurred him to other efforts and he recited another condensed dime novel or the benefit of the girl from Boston. When he had finished the girl said: "Oh, do you know, you remind me so strongly of Bango's 'ghost'?"

"You mean the ghost in the Shakespeare play?" inquired the young man in a hesitating sort of way.

"Yes."

"And why?"

"Don't you remember that Macbeth said to him: 'Thou canst not say, I did it?'"

And until this day the young man does not know why everybody laughed.

The Effect of Getting a Lover.

Sweet Anna was, as many know, a woman suffragist.

But when sweet Anna got a beau she was an Anna kissed.

—N. Y. Press.

A Rising Thermometer.
"What is it that keeps you busy writing so late in your study every night?" asked Mrs. Yerger of her husband.
"I am writing the history of my life."
"I suppose you mention me in it."
"Oh, yes; I call you the sunshine of my existence."
"Do I really throw so much sunshine into your daily life?"
"I refer to you as the sunshine of my existence because you make it hot for me."
A rise in the thermometer occurred immediately after the foregoing conversation.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Ample Compensation.
"Will you kindly take off your hat?" said the gentleman behind the girl with the mammoth headgear. "I won't see my $1.50 worth of the show if you don't."
"No, sir," replied the girl, amiably, as she turned around and smiled serenely upon him. "You may be deprived of a show worth $1.50, but please to remember you are permitted to see a hat worth $35."—Chicago Record.

A Lullaby Failure.
"My mamma's gone away, And papa's come to stay, Like her to sing his little sleep—sleep—sleep."
"I'll quickly make believe I slumber, and deceive, For then the noise he'll stop and silence keep—keep—keep."
—Judge.

NOT SO WONDERFUL AS HE THINKS.

Husband (with desire to say something pleasant)—Do you know, kitten, I could recognize you from your style anywhere?
Kitten—I should think you could, seeing that you have let me wear this same old style for two years.—Judge.

An Unpardonable Offense.
Friend—Aren't you really afraid of that handsome rival of yours?
Smartchap—Not a bit.
"He is very rich."
"Yes."
"A great favorite with the ladies."
"I know it."
"Yet you have no fear?"
"No. He guessed at her age once, and got her only two years younger than she is."—N. Y. Weekly.

The Young Avenger.
He was a pretty little youngster, with little fat legs that stuck out beneath clean, stiff-starched clothes.
"What are you going to do when you grow up to be a man?" asked a visitor.
The little fellow's face assumed an expression of earnest gravity as he responded with a voice which was evidently shaken by sad memories of the past: "Whip papa."—Tit-Bits.

Mileage.
Congressmen on passes.
Ride from state to state, And yet somehow or other The public pays the freight.
—Washington Star.

Railroad Time-Tables.

Chicago & North-west.	LEAVE FOR	ARRIVE FROM
Chicago, Clinton,	6:25 a m	9:25 p m
Chicago, Clinton,	6:35 p m	1:15 a m
Chicago, Clinton, Sharon,	8:40 a m	8:20 p m
Chicago, Clinton, Sharon,	12:30 p m	12:40 p m
Chicago, Elgin, Clinton,	11:55 a m
Beloit,
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	2:15 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	7:00 a m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	12:30 p m	7:45 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	11:05 a m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	1:20 a m	6:30 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	9:30 p m	6:30 a m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	6:35 p m	10:00 a m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	8:25 p m	7:55 a m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	12:45 p m	12:15 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	6:40 a m	10:40 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	11:05 a m	3:05 p m
Chicago, Beloit, Rockford,	2:25 p m	1:05 p m

*Daily, *Sunday only.

All other trains daily, except Sunday.

Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul.	Leave For.	Arrives From
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	7:15 a m	9:30 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	10:20 a m	5:35 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	4:40 p m	7:45 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	9:45 a m	9:17 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	4:40 p m	11:15 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	7:00 p m	5:30 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	11:45 a m	1:40 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	4:40 p m	11:15 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	9:35 a m	4:05 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	1:10 p m	5:40 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	6:20 p m	9:20 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	4:40 p m	4:05 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	9:35 p m	9:25 a m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	5:30 p m	4:40 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	6:35 a m	5:30 p m
Milwaukee, Whitewater,	7:15 a m	9:30 p m

MAILS ARRIVE AND CLOSE.

JANESVILLE MAILS.	Arrive.	Close.
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	6:00 a m	9:00 a m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	7:35 a m	10:00 a m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	9:40 a m	12:00 a m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	12:40 p m	6:00 p m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	6:30 p m	6:30 p m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	6:30 p m	8:40 p m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	11:30 a m
SUNDAY MAILS.
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	6:00 a m	6:00 p m
Chicago, East, West, South-west,	8:30 p m	7:00 p m
MONDAY ONLY.
Chicago, East, West, South-west,		7:00 a m
STAGE MAILS.
Johnston and Richmond,	11:00 a m	2:30 p m
Emerald Grove and Fairbairn,	11:00 a m	2:30 p m

SUITS $16

PANTS $4.

Let us give you a Pointer.

New Tariff Prices

The brakes are off, turn on the steam. The silver and the tariff brakes are loosened, let the wheels of merchant tailoring turn with their old time velocity. We are putting our shoulders to the wheel in a manner that will will enable the up to date wearer of tailor made clothing to open his eyes at the prices we are making. We want to give you some figures on English Suitings

In Worsteds, Cassimeres, Cheviots

to be made in very best style. A Fit Guaranteed or no Sale. We especially call your attention to the suits we are making to your order for $16 and pants $4. You cannot get the same suit at any merchant tailoring establishment in the city for less than $28, nor the pants less than $7.

All the new 1895 samples of woollens in medium and summer weight are here; come and see samples. Leave your order to be delivered anytime within the next 60 days or by April 1.

We represent the largest tailoring establishment in the world.

Suits to Order $16, Pants to Order $4

T. J. ZIEGLER

E. J. SMITH, Mgr.

Main & Milwaukee.

BORT, BAILEY & COMPANY.

A THOUSAND MOTHERS IN THIS COMmunity have sewing to do for their little ones. Do you dread the task? Let us, with our twenty odd years of Dry Goods experience, give you a few sensible points to consider.

First.

Don't put off your sewing until the warm spring and summer days are here, if you want to get it done to your satisfaction.

Second.

Select some of the new and beautiful goods at once you will find it a positive pleasure these winter afternoons to make up the handsome fabrics into pretty garments for the children.

Third.

Use Butterick Patterns. If you follow directions you cannot make a misfit. These Butterick patterns are reliable and all ladies who use them endorse them.

Fourth.

If you want to dress you children in stylish, pretty materials, use good judgment and secure these new and pretty things when you can get them. We are receiving our new line of Spring Goods now. No day passes but that brings us from one to a dozen large cases of stuff.

The prices are from 20 to 40 per cent below any former years.

We want you especially to see the new and beautiful

Embroideries,
Dimities,
White Goods,
Ducks, Piques,
Cambrics.

The beautiful array of these goods will give anybody pleasure to look them over and post herself on the new styles and fabric.

BORT, BAILEY & COMPANY.

LLOYD & SON

51 W. Milwaukee Street.

MUST SELL. IS THE MAKER OF PRICE TO YOU.

The manufacturers story, money, money wanted. We looked over our stock, found they were up to the mark and then marked away down. We make prices even better than one for two. The most sanguine customer will be delightfully disappointed with the prices of shoes. 100 per cent is the least saving on some of them.

$1000 Worth of the Richardson & Norcross make 25 Per Cent less than Factory Cost.

Come make your selection, ask what they cost then deduct 25 per cent and they are yours.

Strong & Carroll's Fine Hand-Sewed Shoes, Shell Cordovan $6 and $7 shoes go at	$3.75
Strong & Carroll's Fine Hand-Sewed Shoes, Kangaroo, $6 and $7 shoes go at	$3.75
67 prs Men's Calf Shoes, lace and congress, $3 shoes go at	$2.00
81 prs " " " " " " $1.50 shoes go at	1.00
All the Men's Lace and Congress calf welt shoes, all style toes $4 shoes go at	2.95
Harry Grey's Fr nch Kid, Hand-turned shoes, $6 shoes go at	2.95
Burt's " " " " " " $5 and $6 shoes go at	2.45
A. J. Johnson's, of Rochester Hand-turned French kid $4 shoes go at	1.85
A large line of $1.75 Dongola Pat. Leather tip go at	1.25
All the $2.25 shoes go at	1.50
78 prs boys shoes, worth $2 go at	1.25
A lot of Youth's shoes, lace, worth $1.25	.95
Men's felt boots and rubbers, $2.75 grade	$2.25
Men's German sacks and rubbers $2 50 grade	2.00
Ladies good button shoes $1.50 grade	1.00
Men's Cork sole shoes	2.50
Ladies white stitched, creased vamp, razor toe shoes sold everywhere at $4	3.00
Ladies Goodyear welt	2.50

Don't Wait for Lower Prices, there's no way to make them.

LLOYD & SON,

57 W. Milwaukee St.

20 N. Main St.

Telephone. 168.

20 N. Main St.

A. C. MUNGER.

We don't think there is a grocery in the city that sells as cheap as we do. At least we have not heard of any such house and we know our customers have not or they would have told us.

Some More Heart Breakers:

California Hams per pound	8
Armour's best ham, per pound	12
Dried beef sliced	16
Fine Syrup per gal	25
Home made lard per pound	10
Sour pickles per gallon	15
Young Hyson tea	20

Try a Package of PANKAKO.

Headlight oil, 5 gal lots	40
3 loaves of the best breadin the city	10

Choice Butter and Fresh Eggs
Always In Stock.

Telephone 168.

A. C. MUNGER.

20 N. Main Street.